Nordic Sounds, 2002 The Nordic sound John H. Yoell, 1971 The Body in Sound, Music and Performance Linda O Keeffe, Isabel Nogueira, 2022-07-20 The Body in Sound Music and Performance brings together cutting edge contributions from women working on and researching contemporary sound practice. This highly interdisciplinary book features a host of international contributors and places emphasis on developments beyond the western world including movements growing across Latin America. Within the book the body is situated as both the site and centre for knowledge making and creative production. Chapters explore how insightful theoretical analysis new methods innovative practises and sometimes within the socio cultural conditions of racism sexism and classicism the body can rise above reshape and deconstruct understood ideas about performance practices composition and listening sensing. This book will be of interest to both practitioners and researchers in the fields of sonic arts sound design music acoustics and performance Sound and Music Computing Tapio Lokki, Stefania Serafin, Meinard Müller, Vesa Välimäki, 2018-06-26 This book is a printed edition of the Special Issue Sound and Music Computing that was published in Applied Sciences The Nordic Sound John H. Yoell, 1974 Wind Turbines Karam Maalawi, 2022-10-26 Much research is being conducted to develop larger wind turbines both onshore and offshore to decarbonize electricity grid systems through the exploitation of wind power. This book presents advances and challenges in the design manufacture and operation of wind turbines. The main topics addressed include the basic aspects of wind turbine design offshore wind industry and floating wind turbines wind measurement and forecasting models design and manufacturing of rotor blades manufacture of power transmission bearings and challenges in control strategies and computational aerodynamics The Voice of Music Anders Beyer, 2019-06-11 This title was first published in 2000. Extensive and generously illustrated interviews have been a feature of the lively Danish music periodical Dansk Musik Tidsskrift Danish Music Review since the 1960s. Now a long standing tradition these conversations with influential composers from all over the world are prepared by professional musicians and experienced writers on music. This volume is a collection of interviews selected from issues published since 1990 by Anders Beyer the journal's editor in chief. The book gives an up to date picture of the North European musical perspectives through interviews with composers from each of the Nordic countries. These are further complemented by interviews with trend setting composers from the rest of Europe and America. The interviews have been edited and translated into English to make them accessible to a wider audience. The volume features interviews with composers including Erik Bergman Tikhon Chrennikov Edison Denisov Hans Gershwin Philip Glass Sofia Gubaidulina and Pelle Gudmundsen Holmgreen Empire of Song Dafni Tragaki, 2013-07-11 The Eurovision Song Contest ESC is more than a musical event that ostensibly unites European people through music. It is a spectacle a performative event that allegorically represents the idea of Europe. Since its beginning in the Cold War era the contest has functioned as a symbolic realm for the performance of European selves and the negotiation of European identities. Through the ESC Europe is experienced felt and imagined in singing and dancing as the interplay of tropes of being local and or European is enacted In Empire of Song Europe and Nation in the Eurovision Song Contest contributors interpret the ESC as a musical mediascape and mega event that has variously performed and performs the changing visions of the European project Through the study of the cultural politics of the ESC contributors discuss the ways in which music operates as a dynamic nexus for making national identities and European sensibilities generating processes of assimilation or integration and defining the celebrated notion of the European citizen in a global context Scholars in the volume also explore the ways otherness and difference are produced spectacularized challenged or even neglected in the televised musical realities of the ESC For the contributing authors song serves as a site for constituting Europe and the nation on and offstage History and politics as well as the constant production of European subjectivities are sounded in song The Eurovision song is a shifting realm where old and new states imagine their pasts question their presents and envision ideal futures in the New Europe Essays in Empire of Song adopt theoretical and epistemological orientations in their exploration of popular music within ethnomusicology and critical musicology questioning the idea of Europe and the nation through and in music at a time when the European self appears more fragmented if not entirely shattered Bringing together ethnomusicology music studies history social anthropology feminist theory linguistics media ethnography postcolonial theory comparative literature and philosophy Empire of Song will interest students and scholars in a vast array of disciplines

Auditory Setting Budhaditya Chattopadhyay,2021-02-15 The Auditory Setting introduces and investigates how narrative and a sense of place are constructed in film and media arts through the reproduction and mediation of site specific environmental sounds or ambience Although this sonic backdrop acts as the acoustically mediated space where a story or event can take place there has been little academic study of sound s undervalued role in cinematic setting and production Drawing on theories of narrative diegesis mimesis and presence and following a varied number of relevant audio visual works this book is a ground breaking exploration of human agency in mediating environmental sounds and the nature of the sonic experience in the Anthropocene
