Lindheim, 2003-12-01

In the Heroides the Roman poet Ovid wittily plucks fifteen abandoned heroines from ancient myth and literature and creates the fiction that each woman writes a letter to the hero who left her behind But in giving voice to these heroines is Ovid writing like a woman or writing Woman like a man Using feminist and psychoanalytic approaches to examine the female voice in the Heroides Sara H Lindheim closely reads these fictive letters in which the women seemingly tell their own stories She points out that in Ovid's verse epistles all the women represent themselves in a strikingly similar and disjointed fashion

Lindheim turns to Lacanian theory of desire to explain these curious and hauntingly repetitive representations of the heroines in the female voice Lindheim's approach illuminates what these poems reveal about both masculine and feminine constructions of the feminine

Violence in the Forum Natale Barca, 2024-09-30 Weaves together the military political and social aspects of this tumultuous period of Roman history The entry of daggers into the Forum is an expression that identifies two precise historical moments when two tribunes of the plebs brothers Tiberius Sempronius Gracchus and Caius Sempronius Gracchus were murdered in Rome in 133 and 122 BC amidst bloody riots These deaths and subsequent events marked the rupture of the constitutional order in the Roman Republic and the beginning of a political crisis Thus began a political process that would lead over the span of three generations to the end of the res publica a transition of endless violence ransacking and destruction including three bitter and bloody civil wars Internal politics in Rome in this period was fueled by social conflict the confrontation between two political alignments the Optimates and the Populares each headed by an eminent figure and was characterized by sectarianism and factional intolerance It was characterized by speeches delivered in the Senate in the streets and in the courts with solemnity and intensity but equally by the daggers that flashed in the hands of conspirators and assassins by street riots with thousands of victims by real or alleged coups d'état with ferocious mass repressions by summary executions by victims abandoned to the fury of the mob of widespread civil wars whose battles intertwined with those against enemies abroad manhunts horrendous crimes the system of legalized killings that aimed at the annihilation of political opponents known as proscriptions corruption and brutal and mass killings This book discusses this tumultuous period in Rome between 133 and 78 BC covering the plots of the Senate of Rome against the Gracchi and their violent ends the mysterious death of Publius Cornelius Scipio Aemilianus destroyer of Carthage and of Numantia the ferocious lynching of Lucius Apuleius Saturninus the seditious tribune of the plebs the civil war between Marius and Sulla including the siege and capitulation of Rome and Marius' reign of terror ending with the definitive victory and proscriptions of Sulla

Roman Portraits in Context Jane Fejfer, 2008 The highest honour a Roman citizen could hope for was a portrait statue in the forum of his city While the emperor and high senatorial officials were routinely awarded statues strong competition existed among local benefactors to obtain this honour which proclaimed and perpetuated the memory of the patron and his family for generations There were many ways to earn a portrait statue but such local figures often had to wait until they had passed away before the public finally fulfilled their expectations It is argued in this book that our understanding and contemplation of a Roman portrait statue is greatly enriched when we consider its wider historical context its original setting the circumstances of its production and style and its base which in many cases bore a text that contributed to the rhetorical power of the image
