More Maple Hill Stories Roderick Turnbull, 1974-01-01 Wabaunsee County Greg A. Hoots, 2009 In 2009 Wabaunsee County will celebrate its 150th anniversary Although Wabaunsee County was first created in 1855 by the Kansas territorial legislature as Richardson County it had no county government and was attached to neighboring Shawnee County in legal jurisdiction In 1859 the legislature renamed the county Wabaunsee after the Potawatomi Indian chief and in March of that year the first election for county officers was held The county lies in the heart of the Kansas Flint Hills and it boasts some of the most beautiful landscapes in the state While located only 30 miles from the state capital in Topeka it retains its rural atmosphere even today The largest of its seven incorporated towns has less than 1 000 residents The earliest settlers lived among large populations of Native Americans During the Civil War the Underground Railroad operated actively in the county In 1880 the first railroad was built in the county and the towns along its line boomed When a second line was introduced in 1887 the county saw its greatest growth Today residents enjoy the breathtaking beauty of the rugged Flint Hills lush pastures and fertile bottomland sustaining the local economy as it has for a century and a half A large section of highway across the county has been designated the Kansas Native Stone Scenic Byway and tourism has begun to play an increasingly larger role in the county's economy Welcome to Maple Hill Myra Poteet-Smith, 2005-11-10 Mattie Smith a woman in her early sixties has she feels accomplished quite a lot in her lifetime Like everyone else some of her ventures have been of her own choosing but most not her hectic life leaving her precious little time to do the things she loves most reading novels spending time with friends and family being involved in choirs and the music that's so much a part of her life one would be hard put to say which of these would be placed at the top of her list Life has a way of changing directions when you least expect it changing your direction and placing you on a course you would never have dreamed of taking So it is with Mattie After several turns in her life Mattie makes a decision that will alter her whole life and everything that she is or was well still is After a lifetime of working at a public job caring for home and family and reaching finally the retired grandmotherly stage of her life she finds herself in a most unexpected to say the least undertaking A great change was made in the life of Mattie and her husband Walt several years back when they made the decision to purchase property in the eastern part of their state of North Carolina where he spent the biggest part of the winter months bear hunting The idea was to have a place so that Mattie could be with Walt occasionally rather than being left at home alone for such long lengths of time as she had been doing for years She never in her wildest dreams imagined becoming a part of the hunt But that's exactly what she did at Walt's request a request that he didn't really think she would take him up on WELCOME TO MAPLE HILL is an open invitation into the life and all the adventures therein of Mattie Smith It is also an introductory book for the many ongoing experiences yet to share in the life of this housewife turned bear hunter Come along up close on some real hunts as Mattie describes in detail what she sees what she thinks as she trails along beside her beloved husband the true bear hunter Catalog of
