does this narrative conclusion compare to the wider ancient literary milieu Recognition and the Resurrection Appearances of Luke 24 proposes that the ancient literary technique of recognition offers a compelling lens through which to understand the climatic role of the resurrection appearances of Jesus as depicted in Luke 24 After presenting the development of recognition in ancient Jewish and Greco Roman literature Thompson demonstrates how Luke 24 deploys the recognition tradition to shape the form and function of the resurrection appearances The ancient recognition tradition not only casts light on various literary and theological features of the chapter but also shapes the way the appearances function in the wider narrative By utilizing recognition Luke 24 generates cognitive affective commissive and hermeneutical functions for the characters internal to the narrative and for the audience The result is a compelling climax to Luke s Gospel that resonates with Luke s wider literary and theological themes This work offers a compelling analysis of the Luke s Gospel in the ancient literary context in light of the ancient technique of recognition that will appeal to those interested in narrative approaches to the New Testament or the interpretation of the New Testament in the wider literary milieu

Studies in the New Testament and Gnosticism George W. MacRae, 2007-09-01 George W MacRae SJ 1928 1985 was an internationally known scholar in the field of New Testament studies He received his doctorate from Cambridge University in New Testament studies taught New Testament at Weston School of Theology and was Stillman Professor of Roman Catholic Studies at Harvard University where he was serving as acting dean of the theology faculty at the time of his death He was a renowned scholar on the Gospel of John Book jacket The Priority of John John A. T. Robinson, 2011-03-01 It has been the fate of many books on John to be left unfinished for its interpretation naturally forms the crowning of a lifetime I have myself been intending to write a book on the Fourth Gospel since the fifties before I broke off reluctantly to be Bishop of Woolwich though I am grateful now that I did not produce it prematurely at that time It means however that I shall be compelled to refer to and often recapitulate material directly or indirectly related to the Johannine literature which I have written over the years some of it indeed while I was bishop Many scholars in fact if not most now think that the author of the Gospel himself never lived to finish it and have seen the work as the product of numerous hands and redactors As will become clear I prefer to believe that the ancient testimony of the church is correct that John wrote it while still in the body and that its roughnesses self corrections and failures of connection real or imagined are the result of its not having been smoothly or finally edited If so I am in good company At any rate who could wish for a better last testimony from his friends than that his witness is true John 21 24 In other words he got it right historically and theologically from the Introduction At the time of his death in December 1983 John Robinson had completed the text of the book on which his 1984 Bampton lectures were to be based so that it is possible to see the full details of his extremely controversial argument that the Gospel of John was the first Gospel to be written Dr Robinson himself once described the dawning of his conviction that this was the case as a Damascus Road experience and his presentation of the evidence is made with all the customary vigor with which he would argue for something in which he deeply believed The objections which need to be overcome to stand on its head what has long been one of the fundamental assumptions of New Testament scholarship are substantial but here once again Dr Robinson shows that so much of what is taken as established fact in that area is no more than preference and presumption Certainly he will provoke rethinking on a whole series of topics from the chronology of Jesus ministry to the nature of his teaching As The Listener said of the equally controversial Redating the New Testament The greatest pleasure Dr Robinson gives is purely intellectual His book is a prodigious virtuoso exercise in inductive reasoning and an object lesson in the nature of historical argument and historical knowledge This sequel equals if not excels its predecessor in those respects and is a fitting tribute to a brilliant New Testament scholar The manuscript was prepared for publication by Dr Chip Coakley Dr Robinson's pupil now Lecturer in Religious Studies in the University of Lancaster

Studies in Canonical Criticism Robert W. Wall, 2020-04-16

As one of the leading figures in New Testament studies Robert W Wall has continually focused on the function of the New Testament as a canonical or authoritative collection of writings reflecting not only the content and essence of the Church's emerging faith but also the life of that community of followers of Jesus who eventually became widely known as Christians In the vein of his defining work The New Testament as Canon A Reader in Canonical Criticism Wall now reflects upon his more recent body of study Always emphasizing canonical conversation Wall had collected and revised some of his most important essays of the last two decades including Unity of Luke and Acts 2010 The Unifying Theology of the Catholic Epistles 2003 13 and Images of Church in John's Revelation 2015 Completed by a new essay on the canonical approach to the Paratext of Hebrews and with vital introductory notes for each chapter that highlight both Wall's revisions and his response to critical reception this book is yet one more asset in Wall's continuing pursuit of the canonical function of the church's Scriptures
