The Art of Identification Rex Ferguson, Melissa M. Littlefield, James Purdon, 2021-09-06 Since the mid nineteenth century there has been a notable acceleration in the development of the techniques used to confirm identity From fingerprints to photographs to DNA we have been rapidly amassing novel means of identification even as personal individual identity remains a complex chimera The Art of Identification examines how such processes are entangled within a wider sphere of cultural identity formation Against the backdrop of an unstable modernity and the rapid rise and expansion of identificatory techniques this volume makes the case that identity and identification are mutually imbricated and that our best understanding of both concepts and technologies comes through the interdisciplinary analysis of science bureaucratic infrastructures and cultural artifacts With contributions from literary critics cultural historians scholars of film and new media a forensic anthropologist and a human bioarcheologist this book reflects upon the relationship between the bureaucratic scientific and technologically determined techniques of identification and the cultural contexts of art literature and screen media In doing so it opens the interpretive possibilities surrounding identification and pushes us to think about it as existing within a range of cultural influences that complicate the precise formulation meaning and reception of the concept In addition to the editors the contributors to this volume include Dorothy Butchard Patricia E Chu Jonathan Finn Rebecca Gowland Liv Hausken Matt Houlbrook Rob Lederer Andrew Mangham Victoria Stewart and Tim Thompson
