More First Words My Birthday:

I WILL TRY David Kamtima Mzembe, 2013-03-15 A Globalised Individual Each time I review my humble beginnings in the northern shores of Malawi I can't help but see a long and torturous yet rewarding journey through life Long and torturous because many tedious and risky trips to various parts of the world were involved and rewarding because the journeys involved exciting and enlightening experiences I suppose the most rewarding outcome from the journeys is my having become a globalized individual This spiritual and intellectual maturation is as much the result of my experience with the diversity of humanity across the globe as it is the result of my unrelenting pursuit of secular and spiritual education Yet my role in the fight against a dictatorship and poor human rights conditions in Malawi didn't play an insignificant role in my personal growth Therefore the history of my personal growth is a history of world travel secular education and many solicitous trips into my inner space As a globalized individual not only am I free of all forms of prejudice I am also capable of a world embracing vision that extends well into the future of humanity I am thus open minded and a believer in peace and unity at all levels of the world community Moreover I am a lover of God people and nature a disposition of spirituality and freedom Thus because I love I am free Birth Reflections and childbirth was ever a matter exclusive to the world of women Even today no male is allowed to attend a traditionally supervised birth and no male apart from the father is allowed to see the newly born child until the ritual of showing the baby out a couple of weeks later is complete Although modern hospitals and clinics encourage men to witness the birth of their children most men don't feel free to attend in fear of lifting the perceived sacredness surrounding child birth Fighting Upon Arrival My generation in Malawi was fated to face successive life battles that would threaten on multiple fronts from day one Right from birth we faced inadequate nutrition poverty and disease It was only by nature's design that our infantile entry into battle with our adversaries did accelerate our defences against them Another battle we were born into was to retain our cultural identity and political independence in the face of a foreign government over us The fight for freedom brought turmoil and fear into my growth environment and the fight protracted into my early years so that I actually experienced its heat then It was rather unfortunate that soon after independence from Britain and before we could find our own voice in the world community of nations we had to enter another battle against home grown autocracy and repression a battle that my generation would own and which would exile me It was the fight against autocracy and repression that saw me on the frontline of the political and diplomatic offensive against the regime of Dr Banda in Malawi Thus this story is about my life at the centre of all those life battles especially the battle against dictatorship in Malawi a fight that kept me in exile for an extended period of time Super-Manny Manuel Davila Sr, 2016-05-21 Faith mixed with love is the only tool we have to redirect the path in which we travel or are chosen to go My life your life all life is already preset to reach its destination When you walk with love and faith it will clear the way for you My journey lead by love of family and strong faith allowed me to win the biggest fight against cancer This is my story

Australian Journal ,1881 Common Ground Justin Trudeau,2014-10-20 The national bestseller Justin Trudeau has spent his life in the public eye From the moment he was born the first son of an iconic prime minister and his young wife Canadians have witnessed the highs and the lows sharing in his successes and mourning with him during tragic times But few beyond Justin s closest circle have heard his side of his unique journey Now in Common Ground Justin Trudeau reveals how the events of his life have influenced him and formed the ideals that drive him today He explores with candour and empathy the difficulties of his parents marriage and the effect it had on a small boy and the close relationship with a father whose exacting standards were second only to his love for his sons He explores his political coming of age during the tumultuous years of the Charlottetown Accord and the Quebec Referendum and reflects on his time as a teacher which was interrupted by the devastating losses of his brother and father We hear how a connection was forged with a beautiful young woman Sophie Gregoire who had known the Trudeau's in earlier days Through it all we come to understand how Justin found his own voice as a young man and began to solidify his understanding of Canada's strengths and potential as a nation We hear what drew Justin toward politics and what led to his decision to run for office Through Justin's eyes we see what it was like in those first days of seeking the Liberal nomination for Papineau when it was just he and Sophie and a clipboard in a grocery store parking lot and how hard work and determination won him not only the nomination but two hard fought elections We learn of his reaction to the considerable Liberal defeat in 2011 and how it clarified his belief that the Liberal Party had lost touch with Canadians and how that summer he was far from considering a run for the Liberal leadership but contemplating whether to leave politics altogether And we learn why in the end he decided to help rejuvenate the Liberal Party and to run for the leadership and for prime minister But mostly Justin shares with readers his belief that Canada is a country made strong by its diversity not in spite of it and how our greatest potential lies in finding what unites us in building on a sense of shared purpose our common hopes and dreams and in coming together on common ground Peterson's Magazine, 1873
