fiction part memoir part philosophy of education this book begins with a story about a womans immigration into the U S and how three of her generations struggled in the U S school system The book ends with an analysis of why many students fail in school and what we can do about it Through story and analysis this book offers a critique of the U S education systemin 3 parts Part one imagines what the immigration experience was like in the past and reads like historical fiction Part two looks at the ensuing three generations in the present and reads like a memoir Part three gleans lessons from the story as a whole for what we can do better in the future In the historical fiction part a Sicilian woman named Rose emigrates to the U S at the turn of the twentieth century Knowing no English and illiterate but armed with a moral intelligence she struggles in this strange world of the free rubs shoulders with some of the great thinkers of her day and discusses the nature of education with them Shes one of the many prosaic heroes history books and schools sometimes forget In the memoir part Roses son Henry the authors father drops out of school in the eighth grade to help his single mom by selling newspapershe never thought he was smart enough for school anyway His son Henry Jr goes all the way in school to obtain a PhD but struggles to find a voice along the way Henry Jr s son Justin was seemingly born with an expressive voice but in his shuffle to conform to the school system almost lost it In these 3 cases we see 3 types of students who often fail in school in general In the final analysis part the book reflects on these prosaic cases to understand why so many U S students fail The theme that emerges parallels the traditions of Rousseau Dewey and Montessori students at heart are good and educators are most effective when they treat them as such students learn best by doing and this includes moral doing and students become intrinsically motivated to learn if allowed to think critically creatively and to find their voices If democracy depends on an informed citizenry the questions this book raises about school failure are critical to the future of our nation J A

Kings of Their Own Ocean Karen Pinchin,2023-07-18 THE INSTANT INTERNATIONAL BESTSELLER Winner of the Evelyn Richardson Non Fiction Award the Margaret and John Savage First Book Award and the 2024 Taste Canada Culinary Narrative Award Shortlisted for the 2024 Kobo Emerging Writer Prize and the Taste Canada Award for Culinary Narrative This is a tale of human obsession one intrepid tuna the dedicated fisherman who caught and set her free the promises and limits of ocean

science and the big truth of how our insatiable appetite for bluefin transformed a cottage industry into a global dilemma In 2004 an enigmatic charter captain named Al Anderson caught and marked one Atlantic bluefin tuna off New England s coast with a plastic fish tag Fourteen years later that fish dubbed Amelia for her ocean spanning journeys died in a Mediterranean fish trap sparking Karen Pinchin s riveting investigation into the marvels struggles and prehistoric legacy of this remarkable species Over his fishing career Al marked more than sixty thousand fish with plastic tags an obsession that made him nearly as many enemies as it did friends His quest landed him in the crossfire of an ongoing fight between a booming bluefin tuna industry and desperate conservation efforts a conflict that is once again heating up as overfishing and climate change threaten the fish s fate Kings of Their Own Ocean is an urgent investigation that combines science business crime and environmental justice As Pinchin writes as a global community we are collectively only ever a few terrible choices away from wiping out any ocean species Through her exclusive access and interdisciplinary mesmerizing lens readers will join her on boats and docks as she visits tuna hot spots and scientists from Portugal to Japan New Jersey to Nova Scotia and glimpse as the author does rays of dazzling hope for the future of our oceans Vanishing Species Susan R. Focusing on the Mediterranean region from 2015 onwards this volume explores photography s engagement with displacement a process that denotes the environmental and social breakdown of places and the forced mobility of people The ongoing proliferation of photography of the displaced plays a crucial role in shaping opinions by sensitising the public to the despair of displacement and hardening them to the trope through repeated exposure Through a range of images by both established and amateur photographers as well as ethnographic notes that draw from interviews with actors who are either displaced or working with the displaced Parvati Nair questions the extent to which photography opens a space of possibility for the displaced in the face of globally dominant ideological drives that lead to the Anthropocene Chapters focus on key aspects of this mass phenomenon such as the question of crises no longer as exception but as historical process the lived experiences of protracted relegation to borders and exposure to possible death the prevalence of homicide and the spread of encampments and the question of hope for the future The book will be of interest to scholars in photography theory migration and refugee studies art history Mediterranean studies and political science Writing With An Accent Edvige Giunta,2016-04-30 Mary Cappello Louise DeSalvo Sandra M Gilbert Maria Mazzotti Gillan Carole Maso Agnes Rossi These are some of the best known Italian American writers today They are part of a literary tradition with mid twentieth century roots that began to develop in earnest in the late 1970s and early 1980s During those decades a number of Italian American women such as Helen Barolini began to publish books that depicted their perspectives on life through the critical lenses of gender class and ethnicity At the end of the twentieth century this literature finally blossomed into a fully fledged cultural movement that also took into account issues of sexuality age illness and familial and societal abuse Writing with an Accent takes a look at this vibrant literary movement by discussing those first writers of the 1970s and 1980s as well as later authors At the center of Edvige Giunta's Writing with an Accent is the literal notion of accent the marker of linguistic and cultural difference that separates and identifies recent immigrants to the United States In this study an accent symbolically embodies the differences and creative strategies through which contemporary Italian American women writers engage Italian American culture in works of fiction poetry and memoir Giunta also looks at the links between the literature and art music film and video produced by contemporary Italian American women The literature of the Italian American women in Writing with an Accent is shaped by the complicated connections these authors maintain with their cultural origins but also and perhaps more importantly by their feminist consciousness and politicized sense of ethnic identity Writing with an Accent celebrates and explores a group of authors who characteristically mix the joy and pain of Italian American life to paint a multifaceted picture of Italian American women and their complex place in U S culture Book Review Digest, 2001
