Monumental Brasses The Craft:

Monumental Brasses, the Craft Malcolm Norris, 1978      The Craft and Design of Monumental Brasses Henry H. Trivick, 1969      Monumental Brasses, the Craft Malcolm Norris, 1978      Monumental Brasses, the Memorials Malcolm Norris, 1977      Medieval Iconography John B. Friedman, Jessica M. Wegmann, 2021-11-18 First published in 1998 the present volume aims to help the researcher locate visual motifs whether in medieval art or in literature and to understand how they function in yet other medieval literary or artistic works      Death, Art, and Memory in Medieval England Nigel Saul, 2001-04-12 In this innovative and compelling book Nigel Saul approaches the world of the medieval gentry through the monuments they left behind them The Cobham family left the largest and most spectacular collection of brasses in Britain in their church at Cobham and other magnificent brasses in Lingfield and elsewhere Medieval brasses have hitherto been studied chiefly from an antiquarian or technical perspective Nigel Saul for the first time shows how they served as a link between the living and the dead Commemoration was inseparable from the wider dynamics of society Through the brasses and through family history he takes us to the heart of gentry aspirations and fears successes and disappointments This extensively illustrated study offers a new paradigm for the study of medieval church monuments and makes a major contribution to our understanding of gentry culture      English Church Monuments in the Middle Ages Nigel Saul, 2011-07-07 This is a comprehensive survey of English medieval church monuments It examines all types of monument cross slabs brasses incised slabs and sculpted effigies It analyzes them in an historical context to show what they reveal of the self image and religious aspirations of those they commemorate Summary by the editor      Monumental Brasses, 1957

Heraldry, Pageantry and Social Display in Medieval England Peter R. Coss, Maurice Keen, 2003 Discussion of display through a range of artefacts and in a variety of contexts family and lineage social distinction and aspiration ceremony and social bonding and the expression of power and authority Medieval culture was intensely visual Although this has long been recognised by art historians and by enthusiasts for particular media there has been little attempt to study social display as a subject in its own right And yet display takes us directly into the values aspirations and indeed anxieties of past societies In this illustrated volume a group of experts address a series of interrelated themes around the issue of display and do so in a way which avoids jargon and overly technical language Among the themes are family and lineage social distinction and aspiration ceremony and social bonding and the expression of power and authority The media include monumental effigies brasses stained glass rolls of arms manuscripts jewels plate seals and coins Contributors MAURICE KEEN DAVID CROUCH PETER COSS CAROLINE SHENTON ADRIAN AILES FR D RIQUE LACHAUD MARIAN CAMPBELL BRIAN and MOIRA GITTOS NIGEL SAUL FIONN PILBROW CAROLINE BARRON and JOHN WATTS      Monumental Brasses as Art and History Jerome Bertram, 1996 Brasses can be looked at from a variety of perspectives so this new work compiled by members of the Monumental Brass Society summarises the position we have reached on brass memorials in Britain and gives a modern interpretation of brasses      Fourteenth Century England Nigel Saul, 2000 Biennial volumes of new research on an eventful century coloured by the Plantagenet dynasty The fourteenth century is one of the most turbulent and compelling periods of English history reflected in the vitality of the current scholarship devoted to it This new series provides a forum for the most recent research into the political social and ecclesiastical history of the century and complements earlier series from Boydell other topics include the Black Death and law making castle building and memorials war and chivalry in the Scalacronica and architecture in the courts of Edward III and Charles V of France Contributors JEFFREY HAMILTON ANDY KING ROY M HAINES ANTHONY MUSSON GLORIA J BETCHER CYNTHIA J NEVILLE CHRISTOPHER PHILPOTTS CHARLES COULSON MARY WHITELEY NICHOLAS ROGERS LYNDIA DENNISON DOUGLAS BIGGS NIGEL SAUL is Professor of Medieval History Royal Holloway and Bedford New College University of London      King Arthur's Round Table Martin Biddle, Sally Badham, 2000 Archival and scientific research reveal the origins and purpose of the Winchester Round Table      Reports Upon Openings in Industry Suitable for Disabled Sailors and Soldiers Great Britain. Ministry of Labour, 1917      Early Incised Slabs and Brasses from the London Marblers Sally Badham, Malcolm Norris, 1999 Although the objective of the Monumental Brass Society is to promote the study both of monumental brasses and of incised slabs research on the two media has proceeded along separate and largely independent lines This is the first work to combine the stylistic analysis of monumental brasses with incised slabs Like brasses incised slabs are susceptible to stylistic analysis to identify workshop groupings This book identifies existing and recorded Purbeck marble incised slabs from the pre Black Death London workshops and compares their designs with those of contemporary brasses The result is a fuller picture than has previously been available of the operations of the London marblers before the Black Death It suggests that in the late thirteenth century production was on a larger scale than previously believed and evidence is outlined for the existence of multiple workshops producing brasses and incised slabs in London for much of the period covered by this study      Readers' Guide , 1912
