Sagas from the Far East; Or, Kalmouk and Mongolian Traditionary Tales Rachel Harriette Busk, 1873 Fairy tales from the Far east, adapted from the birth stories of Buddha by Theo Gift Dorothy Henrietta Boulger, Theo Gift, 1892 Lion City Narratives: Singapore Through Western Eyes Victor R Savage, 2021-11-18 Lion City Narratives Singapore Through Western Eyes fulfils four aims First it is a study of subjective Western impressions of Singapore s 145 years 1819 1963 of colonial history The study is not meant to be an in depth historical analysis of Singapore but rather to give the reader an impressionistic account of how Western residents viewed Singapore over the decades Second this study could be seen as a short biography of Singapore s evolution as a city The chapters on the imageability of Singapore and its urban morphology provide a holistic perspective of Singapore s urban dynamics Third this book provides a cultural insight into Singapore s population both White residents and transient visitors as well as the locals or Asians Fourth it opens a window into Singapore s development at a time when the West was at its cultural zenith and when Great Britain was the principal superpower of the 19th century Hence Singapore carried twin colonial legacies it was the archetype trading emporium between East and West and it became for the British the major point d appui for defence Finally the Singapore colonial narrative is set in a broader academic discourse that allows the reader to see a wider picture of Singapore s colonial development The book does not attempt to make a definitive statement about the Western involvement in Singapore it deals more with an association of many subjective Western perspectives that add colour to the liveability of the tropics perceptions of the exotic Orient and the myriad views of ethnic groups Without the Western writings paintings and maps academia would have minimal records of Singapore s development As a new colony in the early 19th century however Singapore s growth has been extremely well documented This book will appeal to Singaporeans interested in understanding Singapore s colonial past Westerners interested in the Western cultural persona in the development of Singapore researchers dealing with the urban development of less developed countries and colonial development in the tropical world and lastly academics who are interested in Singapore and the region s political and economic development as a case study Historical Companion to Postcolonial Literatures in English Prem Poddar, 2019-08-07 This is the first reference guide to the political cultural and economic histories that form the subject matter of postcolonial literatures written in English The focus of the Companion is principally on the histories of postcolonial literatures in the Anglophone world Africa the Middle East South Asia South east Asia Australia and New Zealand the Pacific the Caribbean and Canada There are also long entries discussing the literatures and histories of those further areas that have also claimed the title postcolonial notably Britain East Asia Ireland Latin America and the United States The Companion contains 220 entries written by 150 acknowledged scholars of postcolonial history and literature covers major events ideas movements and figures in postcolonial histories long regional survey essays on historiography and women s histories Each entry provides a summary of the historical event or topic and bibliographies of postcolonial literary works and histories Extensive cross references and indexes enable readers to locate particular literary texts in their relevant historical contexts as well as to discover related literary texts and histories in other regions with ease
