Hietala, 2019-10-25 This is a revealing look at the history of race relations in the United States during the first half of the twentieth century portrayed through the lives and times of the first two African American heavyweight boxing champions Jack Johnson and Joe Louis Incorporating extensive research into the black press of the time the author explores how the public careers and private lives of these two sports figures both define and explain vital national issues from the early 1900s to the late 1940s The Paradox of Suicide and Creativity M.F. Alvarez, 2020-11-12 If creativity is the highest expression of the life impulse why do creative individuals who have made lasting contributions to the arts and sciences so often end their lives M F Alvarez addresses this central paradox by exploring the inner lives and works of eleven creative visionaries who succumbed to suicide Through a series of case studies Alvarez shows that creativity and suicide are both attempts to authenticate and resolve personal catastrophes that have called into question the most basic conditions of human existence
