MY LIFE WITH DREISER. BY HELEN DREISER. The essays reflect Pizer's mature engagement of the subject; he has spent a lifetime exploring. The Biography Book Daniel S. Burt, 2001-02-28 From Marilyn to Mussolini people captivate people. A E's Biography best-selling autobiographies and biographical novels testify to the popularity of the genre. But where does one begin? Collected here are descriptions and evaluations of over 10,000 biographical works including books of fact and fiction, biographies for young readers and documentaries and movies all based on the lives of over 500 historical figures from scientists and writers to political and military leaders to artists and musicians. Each entry includes a brief profile, autobiographical and primary sources and recommended works. Gelfant's book Cross Cultural Reckonings both demonstrates and questions the applicability of postmodern cultural and literary theories to realistic texts to fiction and autobiographies valued for their truth. Drawing together an unusual combination of Russian, American and Canadian writers, the various essays of this book provide new and original perspectives upon the puzzling issues of national identity, of historical change and continuity of gender and the integrity of literary genres, the boundaries between text and context and the underlying if overlooked conflicts between the postmodern critic's skepticism and a writer's belief in the transcendence of art and truth. To avoid the contingencies inherent in binary comparisons, the essays in this book seek a triadic form analogous to the triptych or polyptych of the visual arts. Multi-faceted, non-linear and open-ended, such a form might allow the academic essay to recover a waywardness that traces back to Montaigne cited in prefatory notes and to the etymological meaning of the essay as an exagium or weighing as an act of reckoning. A study at once elegant, erudite and personal, Cross Cultural Reckonings reckons with writers of different backgrounds and reputation in whom Gelfant discovers surprising affinities among them: the Russian writers Lydia Chukovskaya, Natalya Baranskaya and Alexander Solzhenitsyn, Ethel Wilson, a highly reputed Canadian writer, the famous cross-cultural figure Emma Goldman and established as well as new or rediscovered American writers such as Willa Cather, Saul Bellow, Arlene Heyman and Meridel Le Sueur. These writers are discussed singly and in comparative essays, each of which is discrete and self-contained while all interconnect and reflect.
