My Poetry My Therapy:

My Poetry My Therapy Gerry O. Lundell, 2009-06 Poetry is therapy for the one who writes it and also for the one who reads it Who would ever think it a numbers guy writing poetry How it all began is unclear the motivation and inspiration seemed to come out of nowhere but I enjoyed it It was my therapy in a troublesome and uncertain world My Christian faith was ignited and uplifted as I would ponder topics and words for another poem God's love and grace became a central theme and trials blessings silence hope kindness patience peace and Joy is like dancing daffodils in your garden or window sills Silent with glee jubilant and free sharing with all intimate thrills Real joy you have deep inside you can't contain you cannot hide What's there internal shows up external like a secret reverent pride It glows like sunshine in your eye seen by those who walk nearby If you have some today give it away It will spread like a summer sky My Poetry, My Therapy Stefan Grunwald, 1978 My Comfort Place Mom And Dad Paromita Das, 2025-10-14 An embracing portrayal of the warmth support and comfort that parents give children is this interplay called Shrine of Love This story speaks of the tremendous sense of belonging trust and calm provided through the redemptive power of parental affection THE UNBREAKABLE BOND deals with the very dynamic of parenthood the highs and lows changes of attitude and hearts and the unexplainable bond Also revealed is an unbelievably insightful portrayal of parenthood's sacrificial love where the parents are just as heavily involved in their growth and transformation as are their kids Fiza Ahmad My Poetry, My Therapy Rob Holt, 2018

My Special Place, Today Deanne Winter, 2008-05-22 My Special Place Today is a continuation of My Special Place From a small girl growing up in a family where there is no unity between parents and children or between sisters and brothers This young girl learns many of life's lessons that take her from the innocence of a child into her adult years where she struggles to make her life in to something that matters Does she deem herself unfit to be a loving daughter mother and wife Yet throughout her life she struggles to understand the spirituality of her faith Through her faith in God she reaches out to people of all kinds the sick the healthy the intelligent and also the happy and the sad We come to know Deanne as a woman who has been exposed to mental illness and through all her trials we read her story of how she learns to open up herself to those who can learn from her experiences Her journeys are heart wrenching and truthful with the subtlety of human emotion

Beyond Therapy Erving Polster, 2017-09-08 In Beyond Therapy Erving Polster examines the role of life focus in three of society's most familiar activities ordinary conversation the arts and religion He shows the life focus movement to be an indivisible complement to just simply living In proposing a paradigm shift from psychotherapy's priority for changing people's troubled lives into the complementary purpose of illuminating their lives the author invites the participation of many people who do not seek remedial treatment for emotional or psychological problems Polster incorporates a broader scenario for enhancing attention through community groups showing that the convergence of people's minds on commonly important life themes creates enlightenment This interlocked focus amplifies the ensuing conversational content and creates a meditation like absorption This kind of pointed focus argues Polster has the power to colour the lives of the participants This work offers rationale and design for life focus community groups and also creates a heightened identity for the life focus movement providing other foundational ideas that help to unify diverse approaches Mental health professionals will benefit from its wealth of specific exercises and instructions for program design Polster provides leaders and group members with a well rounded perspective on the basics of personal enlightenment and communal belonging

Women's Encounters with the Mental Health Establishment Elayne Clift, 2014-01-27 Explore women's first person experiences with the mental health establishment This unique contemporary anthology of women's experiential writing shares women's realities perceptions and experiences positive and negative within the therapeutic environment These artistic expressions of personal experience will help women understand their own encounters in a new light They are also instructive and enlightening for any practitioner working with women in a mental health setting Charlotte Perkins Gilman's famous short story included here The Yellow Wallpaper which inspired this title has come to represent the struggle of contemporary women to be understood by the therapeutic milieu from whom they seek psychological support and psychiatric treatment An icon of feminist writing the 1892 story symbolizes affirmation and validation for the female experience regarding mental health and therapy This anthology in the spirit of Gilman's work gives voice to today's women so that their own encounters with the mental health establishment can be validating and affirming to others It will also enlighten those in the helping professions as they extend their services to women in a time of growing need and shrinking resources In addition to The Yellow Wallpaper and a foreword and afterword by noted psychiatric professionals Women's Encounters with the Mental Health Establishment Escaping the Yellow Wallpaper also contains works by authors including Sylvia Plath Kate Millett Anne Sexton Lauren Slater Martha Manning Elayne Clift and many more Through prose and poetry the contributors to this volume offer a creative artistic and highly readable contribution to the literatures of women's studies and psychology Visit the author's website at <http://www.sov.net/ecclift>

Enchantment and Gestalt Therapy Erving Polster, 2020-11-30 Enchantment and Gestalt Therapy is a personal exploration of Erving Polster's remarkable career the value of the Gestalt approach and the power of enchantment in psychotherapy Polster points ahead to a vision of a psychotherapy that includes the population as a whole rather than focusing on individuals highlights common aspects of living and focuses on creating an ethos for a shared understanding The book outlines the six Gestalt therapy concepts that have formed the basis of Polster's work and describes Life Focus Groups with an emphasis on the communal relationship between tellers and listeners Polster also describes the phenomenon of enchantment in psychotherapy in detail with reference to his own experiences This unique work is essential reading for Gestalt therapists other professionals interested in Gestalt approaches and readers looking for a deeper insight into community and connection In the below link Erving Polster speaks to Margherita Spagnuolo Lobb the series editor of The Gestalt Therapy Book Series about Enchantment and Gestalt Therapy <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7PVG9JgpTQQ> feature
