Making Globalization:

Making Globalization Work Joseph E. Stiglitz, 2007-09-17 A damning denunciation of things as they are and a platform for how we can do better Andrew Leonard Salon Building on the international bestseller Globalization and Its Discontents Joseph E Stiglitz offers here an agenda of inventive solutions to our most pressing economic social and environmental challenges with each proposal guided by the fundamental insight that economic globalization continues to outpace both the political structures and the moral sensitivity required to ensure a just and sustainable world As economic interdependence continues to gather the peoples of the world into a single community it brings with it the need to think and act globally This trenchant intellectually powerful and inspiring book is an invaluable step in that process Making Globalisation Robert

Holton, 2005-07-08 Publisher description Making Globalisation Robert J. Holton, 2017-03-23 This book offers a clear and concise account of the key debates in the globalization literature serving as an accessible introduction to students new to the topic It deals even handedly with all the various dimensions of globalization political economic social and cultural and particularly draws attention to the role of people in processes of globalization The book s historical dimension and its multicultural focus ensure that globalization is shown neither to be an inexorable process nor one that can be equated simply with Westernization Making Globalization Work Joseph E. Stiglitz, 2007 This book focuses on policies that truly work offering fresh new thinking about the questions that shape the globalization debate including a plan to restructure a global financial system made unstable by America s debt ideas for how countries can grow without degrading the environment a framework for free and fair global trade and much more Throughout the author reveals that economic globalization continues to outpace both the political structures and the moral sensitivity required to ensure a just and sustainable world And he makes plain the real work that all nations must undertake to realize that goal Dust jacket Making Globalisation Robert

Dunning, 2004-09-16 Table of contents Making Globalization Work for All International Monetary Fund, 2016-09-30 This paper focuses on concerns over wages jobs and future prospects are real and pressing for those who are not well equipped to thrive in this new world History clearly tells us that closing borders or increasing protectionism is not the way to go Many countries have tried this route and just as many have failed Instead we need to pursue policies that extend the benefits of openness and integration while alleviating their side effects Emerging and developing economies have been the prime beneficiaries of economic openness According to the World Bank trade has helped reduce by half the proportion of the global population living in extreme poverty China for instance saw a phenomenal drop in its extreme poverty rate from 36 percent at the end of the 1990s to 6 percent in 2011 Another example is Vietnam which in a single generation moved from being one of the world's poorest nations to middle income status which has allowed for increased investments in health and education Making Globalisation Work, 2006 Making Globalization Socially Sustainable Organización Mundial del Turismo, 2011

Making Globalization Happen Vijayashri Sripathi, 2024-03-10 In Making Globalization Happen The Untold Story of Power Profits Privilege Sripathi explains how when through which entities and for what purposes economic globalization was catalyzed and its effects on the Global South in general and South Asia in particular Based on an innovative international constitutional political economy framework Sripathi examines how the Western classical liberal constitution has shaped international law developments in this post colonial era given its salience and comprehensive scope Presenting a comprehensive narrative of economic globalization Making Globalization Happen accurately and comprehensively links constitutional globalization to the following UN family created agendas peacebuilding conflict prevention human security protection of civilians sustainable development global war on terrorism women peace and security poverty reduction or market oriented development ending conflict related sexual violence and justice climate criminal and transitional Sripathi simultaneously provides the missing constitutional foundation for globalization and the fields that it has spawned global studies and law and political economy With these ground breaking insights Making Globalization Happen The Untold Story of Power Profits Privilege clearly illustrates who drove constitutional globalization and for whose benefit the UN family and transnational capitalists Thus it rips away the facade of UN family driven peace justice human rights democracy and development to expose it as a narrative of power profit and privilege for transnational capitalists and debt death and despair for the Global South Making Globalization Socially Sustainable International Labour Office, 2011 Globalisation is widely seen as a powerful engine that has the potential to promote growth and development For many years however concerns have also been raised about the effects of globalisation on jobs and wages This has led to questions about the social sustainability of globalisation Jointly published by the ILO and the WTO with funding by the International Chamber of Commerce this publication consists of contributions by leading academic experts who analyse the various channels through which globalisation affects jobs and wages Together the nine chapters in this volume summarise state of the art knowledge on themes related to the social dimension of globalisation The volume therefore represents a step in the direction of a better understanding of the mechanisms through which globalisation affects workers and of the measures that governments can take to give globalisation a strong social dimension It will be of value to all those who are interested in the debate on the social sustainability of globalisation including workers and employers policy makers academics and other trade and labour specialists Making Globalization Work, Globalization and Challenges for Development in Tanzania Lucian A.
