Perkins, Ph.D.,2019-02-26 Poems of Love Struggle and Change By Merredith F Perkins Ph D If someone had said to her twenty five years ago that she would be living the life she s living Merredith F Perkins Ph D would have questioned his or her sanity She would have been an ardent disbeliever The fortune of writing was bestowed upon her a long time ago but she did not know that twenty five years of reflective writing and her poems would show up in a book at this stage of her life In her golden years Dr Perkins is writing and sharing her poetry with the public to show that we all have a lot in common and that we all stumble humbly through our life's journey. In taking stock of her life and understanding a little bit of what her life has been for, she is learning that the puzzle pieces were being laid on a path long before she arrived at that path. Poems of Love, Struggle, and Change is a collection of poetic expressions on topics about love, in relationships, struggling with expressions of self-awareness, and engaging in the friction of self-discovery as a way to gauge internal and external explorations as life unfolds.

Step into Our Lives at the Funeral Home Jo Michaelson, Dale Lund, 2017-07-05. Many people are curious about what goes on behind the scenes at a funeral home. Add a live-in family to this scenario, and you'll Step Into Our Lives at the Funeral Home. Shh! Be quiet! There's someone at the door. Don't ever talk about anything you have seen or heard concerning someone's death outside the walls of our home. Mourning families need to know they can trust our integrity and our ability to keep confidentiality. For the author's family, these admonitions were ingrained in the children's minds at an early age. This book gives an insightful view of every facet of the funeral, from the time a death call is received until the funeral is completed. Stories of days in the ambulance business in conjunction with the funeral home are also related. The funeral director's role, the spouse's role, the children's role, and how the children thrived in an atmosphere of death are shared with the reader. How funeral directors cope with stress and how wives cope with their husbands during these times are revealed. Years later, following a tragic death, three people look back and share their stories of moving from despair to recovery. Interspersed through every chapter are stories and vignettes shared by many funeral directors throughout the Midwest concerning the lifestyle for the family living in the funeral home and true incidents of specific funerals. Some stories are sad, others are tragic, a few are humorous. Embracing faith, hope, and love is a primary requisite for healing. Intended audience: General readers of all ages, funeral home directors, hospice patients, mortuary students, and people who have had a loved one die by natural means or tragedy.
