Survival Notes Lydia Rachel Figes, 2025-10-28 Weaving artists reflections and anecdotes with their invaluable words of advice to aspiring creatives this inspiring book explores the practical realities of the art world and demystifies the route to professional success Survival Notes is an inspiring narrative weaving artists reflections on success with advice to aspiring creatives Featuring direct quotes and exclusive interviews with internationally acclaimed artists such as Anish Kapoor Shirin Neshat Tracey Emin Jesse Darling and Shahzia Sikander this book offers authoritative counsel on how to thrive in a highly competitive art world as well as thoughtful insights on what it means to be an artist in the twenty first century Nine thematic chapters offer essential guidance on how to negotiate the practical realities of artmaking with discussions relating to education self discipline gallery representation mental wellbeing mentorship and more In a climate where emerging creatives feel less empowered than ever Lydia R Figes provides a hopeful message about perseverance and perspective while questioning whether the advice given by established practitioners can still be applied today

Painting as Model Yve-Alain Bois, 1993-05-04 Informed by both structuralism and poststructuralism these essays by art critic and historian Yve Alain Bois seek to redefine the status of theory in modernist critical discourse Warning against the uncritical adoption of theoretical fashions and equally against the a priori rejection of all theory Bois argues that theory is best employed in response to the specific demands of a critical problem The essays lucidly demonstrate the uses of various theoretical approaches in conjunction with close reading of both paintings and texts

The Unchosen Ones R. J. Kern, In 2016 award winning Minnesota based photographer R J Kern made portraits of youth contestants at Minnesota county fairs Each participant some as young as four years old had spent a year raising an animal which they had then entered into a 4 H livestock competition None of the youths who sat for him had succeeded in winning an award despite the obvious care they had given to their animals The Unchosen Ones depicts the bloom of youth and the mettle of the kids who grow up on farms reminding us how resilient children can be when confronted with life's inevitable disappointments The formal qualities of the lighting and setting endow these young people with a gravitas beyond their years revealing self-directed dedication in some and in others perhaps the pressures of traditions imposed upon them Kern's beautiful portraits capture a particular America a rural world and a time in life when the layered emotions of youth are laid bare Four years later in 2020 Kern returned to photograph his young subjects The most recent photographs show how the children have grown into adolescence or young adulthood some of them have continued to pursue animal husbandry while others have developed other interests It is likely that some of these kids will not choose to continue running their family farms an unpredictable and demanding way to make a living These diptychs are punctuated by lush landscapes of the farms that are their homes As Kern made the second group of photographs he asked his young subjects what they had carried forward from their previous experience What were their thoughts their dreams and their goals for the future How would they fit into the future of agricultural America
