My Language Is Me:

    Come Back to Me My Language J. Edward Chamberlin,1993 Combining the African sources and British colonial traditions this poetry shares its roots with rap and reggae and has the same hold on the popular imagination It discusses the work of more than thirty poets and performers and gives detailed analyses of the major ones Nobel Lectures ,2007 This is a collection in which meditations on imagination and the process of writing mingle with keen discussions of global affairs geography and colonialism cultural change and the deeply lasting influences of the past The Oxford Handbook of African American Language Sonja Lanehart,2015-05-04 The goal of The Oxford Handbook of African American Language is to provide readers with a wide range of analyses of both traditional and contemporary work on language use in African American communities in a broad collective The Handbook offers a survey of language and its uses in African American communities from a wide range of contexts organized into seven sections Origins and Historical Perspectives Lects and Variation Structure and Description Child Language Acquisition and Development Education Language in Society and Language and Identity It is a handbook of research on African American Language AAL and as such provides a variety of scholarly perspectives that may not align with each other as is indicative of most scholarly research The chapters in this book interact with one another as contributors frequently refer the reader to further elaboration on and references to related issues and connect their own research to related topics in other chapters within their own sections and the handbook more generally to create dialogue about AAL thus affirming the need for collaborative thinking about the issues in AAL research Though the Handbook does not and cannot include every area of research it is meant to provide suggestions for future work on lesser studied areas e g variation heterogeneity in regional social and ethnic communities by highlighting a need for collaborative perspectives and innovative thinking while reasserting the need for better research and communication in areas thought to be resolved Disrupting the Academy with Lived Experience-Led Knowledge Maree Higgins,Caroline Lenette,2024-03-27 This book firmly positions lived experience led expertise as a unique and compelling form of knowledge in decolonising and disrupting research teaching and advocacy Based on the insights of people with first hand experiences each chapter presents unique accounts and reflections on a diverse range of social justice issues Together the authors perspectives centre lived experiences in the production of knowledge challenge outsider imposed views and create new research and writing norms They demonstrate that when lived experience experts lead the way their knowledge of how to address social injustices can enrich transform and decolonise research teaching and advocacy This collection is an invaluable resource for academic and community based researchers practitioners advocates educators policy makers students and people whose lived experiences and views continue to be marginalised across diverse settings Balancing Acts Hazel Johns,1998 First Published in 1998 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Why English? Pauline Bunce,Robert Phillipson,Vaughan Rapatahana,Ruanni Tupas,2016-06-10 This book explores the ways and means by which

English threatens the vitality and diversity of other languages and cultures in the modern world Using the metaphor of the Hydra monster from ancient Greek mythology it explores the use and misuse of English in a wide range of contexts revealing how the dominance of English is being confronted and counteracted around the globe The authors explore the language policy challenges for governments and education systems at all levels and show how changing the role of English can lead to greater success in education for a larger proportion of children Through personal accounts poems essays and case studies the book calls for greater efforts to ensure the maintenance of the world s linguistic and cultural diversity   The English Reports: Chancery (including collateral reports) (1557-1865) ,1904   Thomas Carlyle James Anthony Froude,1897   The English-speaking World ,1920   Worthies of the Church of England: biographies of priests and laymen William Henry Davenport Adams,1884   Count Kostia Victor Cherbuliez,1873   The Rebel Prince Seth Cook Comstock,1905   Littell's Living Age ,1883   Life and Public Services of Charles Sumner Charles Edwards Lester,1874   Thomas Carlyle; a History of His Life in London, 1834-1881 James Anthony Froude,1910   Works Collins,1887   The Monastery Walter Scott,1893   The Parliamentary Debates Great Britain. Parliament,1905   Collections for the History of the Parish of Speen, in the County of Berks Walter Money,1892   Congressional Record ,1880
