My Mom Made Me Go to School Judy Delton, 1990-12-01 Archie hates the idea of his first day in kindergarten and everything connected with it but he ends up going and finds it tolerable      An Unexpected Father Lisa Ruff, 2010-04-01 After a decade on the road single mom Mimi Green gives up her rock star dreams and goes home to Crab Creek Maryland Her troubled son needs stability Grandparents A good school and friends his own age She s not looking for a new father for Jack but when she meets Ian Berzani she may need the handsome sailor for herself When Ian nabs a nine year old trespasser in the family boatyard he thinks miniature rebel without a clue One look at the kid s mother and Ian s thoughts veer into dangerous uncharted territory Mimi was tempting him to stay The timing couldn t be worse for a man three months seven days and eleven hours from a lifelong dream of sailing around the world He doesn t want an instant family to change his plans but how can he set sail and leave his heart behind      Esther's Altruism Esther Decker Huling, 2006-03 My Mammy and Pappy would let me look through their Bible for pictures In it were handkerchiefs flowers and notes all neatly laid out under particular pages I m sure these had some very important meaning if only for them Best of all Mammy s big Bible showed a big picture of a red devil He had a pitchfork tail and a big laughing face He really scared me and the look on my face when I found his picture made Mammy laugh and giggle When I looked over to Pappy he was laughing a bit too It was very disturbing for me to see that picture of the old devil The next few times that I went down to Mammy s I d ask to see the ole devil again and I would get scared all over I can still see him today in my memory and hear my Mammy telling me if I wasn t good the old devil would get me      On My Way to Heaven Michele E. Davis, 2009-10 Summary Life has a way of taking you through many unexpected twists and turns Know that God does not do these things to us He allows things to happen to not only get our attention but to prepare us to operate and function within His purpose He has for our lives Walk the journey of despair confusion and life s altering circumstances within On My Way to Heaven Envision how God allows adversities and people to walk in and out of our lives to assist in our preparation As we learn life lessons we should embrace forgiveness and learn how to become better instead of bitter Once this is achieved a place of peace will be upon you And Jesus said to Paul But rise and stand on your feet for I have appeared to you for this purpose to make you a minister and a witness both of the things which you have seen and of the things which I will yet reveal to you Acts 26 16 As Jesus spoke to Paul on his Journey to Damascus he speaks to us today      Through My Eyes Morinsilva, 2011 Through My Eyes tells the true story of a young girl who grew up in a household full of abuse The experience taught her how to hide her feelings and personality Consequently Lisa went through life starved for love and filled with fears The fears led her to make decisions that were unwise and caused her to suffer even more This book is full of candid remembrances that detail Lisa s love anger rage and near homicide Through My Eyes Domestic Violence Through the Eyes of a Child provides vivid recollections of memories dealing with the abuse suffered in her family It further details how a female abuser was born The book gives profound advice to parents as well as to abused children It speaks from the heart of the signs to look for in children when they are becoming an abuser themselves or from a person who will become abused There is poetry written Through the Eyes of a Child that provides a wake up call for parents motivating them to take action toward creating a safe environment for their children This is not an easy book to read but a necessary one About the Author Morinsilva is a high school teacher in Las Cruces New Mexico I want to encourage youth to seek a better tomorrow I have been wounded by domestic violence in an insurmountable way parents need to know what they are doing to children when they do not seek help I want to rescue kids and teens and build a nation of survivors that will eradicate child abuse She has already written her next book Publisher s website <http://www.strategicpublishinggroup.com/title/ThroughMyEyes.htm> Growing Away from the Barrio Paula A. with a Testimony Damekio Gardner,2012 Damekio Gardner was the girl who had it all designer clothes lavish jewelry fancy cars and a few streetwise hustlers to provide it all After dating Miles for a while her life became a continuous vicious cycle dating one thug after another all of whom wanted to live their lives in the fast lane Her life was consumed by street drama destruction and tragedy For many years Damekio struggled against constant animosity the slandering of her name by jealous women and constant battles with her lovers She was beginning to feel she was running out of options She finally reached her breaking point in response to the death of her son s father that s when she resolved to seek the guidance of God Damekio now knows that every experience of her life the positive and the negative was a lesson Making mistakes and learning from them helped her to become the strong passionate woman she is today She now hopes to share her testimony to give hope to others who may be facing the dilemmas she did High School Life ,1923 Changing Faces Sean J. Marshall,2012-06 I came into this world Sean John Marshall I am twenty seven years old and was born and raised in Colorado Springs Colorado I am a fine artist author a proud father of one beautiful baby girl and an all around entrepreneur But all of my pursuits came to an abrupt halt when I was consumed by a life of crime For so long I became a part of a problem Growing up in and around the streets I've caused much destruction in my lifetime I've been a part of gang violence sold drugs and was involved in countless thefts and armed robberies Now my life's focus is to inspire teach uplift and mend I now use life's experiences to grow and learn I feel obligated to pass on all the insight and knowledge I've obtained throughout the years to whoever I can By doing so people can learn from my mistakes and use me as an example because I've seen darker truths that people need not witness themselves I've walked rocky paths on which those can only stumble And if by sharing my views on paper and pouring my heart out through a pen can inspire or save just one life if by writing I can prevent someone from making some of the same mistakes I've made I will have done my part I will have at least saved one soul from having to suffer the afflictions I've faced And for that reason alone I write And for that reason alone I'll forever share my truths Colophon      Tears on the School Desk Hermine Mary Morrison, 2007 A vivid recounting of a determined young Austrian girl's horrific experiences of family betrayals and of World War II One reads much of this account as one passes by a traffic accident peeking through fingers intrigued but fearful of what comes next It's not an easy story The starkness is softened by her experiences of pure young love her faith and the heroes she's chosen to keep her going It is ultimately a life affirming narrative of this woman's life a narrative not just of survival but of hope and victory I dreamed of having a little flower a pet of my own a light in the room a toy to play with and never being locked up again Bypassing daily news Mother missed rules didn't know and didn't realize the danger in which we lived Our mother was always very happy to help her Jewish friend Mrs Hackenberg run a good business in the secondhand store What they didn't know was that the Gestapo watched The smell of the horse manure cut off my breath I had to get out While I scrambled out of the box I hit both my toes a few more times Finally I made it with my Sylva As I walked pushing my carriage with my doll in it each step I took left blood behind on the sidewalk With tears on my hand I wrote on the wall of the prison in which I now knew for sure my mom was trapped I love you Mom O dear God please Let my dear mommy come home Suddenly my life changed I wasn't even hungry anymore From now on my survival didn't matter I lived for the moment to be able to see and hear my love sing again Everything I owned including myself I would have gladly given for my Serafin though I knew I could never call him my own      John Martin's Book ,1930      The Horn Book Guide to Children's and Young Adult Books ,1991      Psychology ,1933      The Hope Clinic for Women, Ltd. V. Adams ,2011      International Journal of Religious Education ,1926      Dress & Vanity Fair ,1934      The Congregationalist and Christian World ,1910      Q'Sapi Shirley Louis, 2008 There are many individual voices male and female old and young scattered about me These voices expressed themselves in two languages Okanagan and English Okanagan was unwritten for the most part But more often than not as if by some magnetic pull of oral tradition the individual tribal voices unconsciously blended together with the English voice like braided strands of thread into one voice story song and prayer That thread stretched unbroken to the pre time and origin that still lived in the mystery and power of the Okanagan language their spoken word even translated into English as it had been for well over decades before I was born

The echo of that tribal voice in Okanagan or English never disappears or fades from my ear not even in the longest silences of the people or in my absences from them Arnie Louie
