Ordinary Horror:

Ordinary Horror David Searcy, 2002 Frank Delabano wants to get rid of the mysterious burrowing pests that are menacing the roses in his small backyard He sends away for an organic remedy advertised in the local paper Gopherbane a South American plant is guaranteed to be effective while harmless to pets and everything else But a series of horrific incidents gradually builds to an apocalyptic climax

Narrative Across Media Marie-Laure Ryan, James Ruppert, John W. Bernet, 2004-01-01 Narratology has been conceived from its earliest days as a project that transcends disciplines and media The essays gathered here address the question of how narrative migrates mutates and creates meaning as it is expressed across various media Dividing the inquiry into five areas face to face narrative still pictures moving pictures music and digital media Narrative across Media investigates how the intrinsic properties of the supporting medium shape the form of narrative and affect the narrative experience Unlike other interdisciplinary approaches to narrative studies all of which have tended to concentrate on narrative across language supported fields this unique collection provides a much needed analysis of how narrative operates when expressed through visual gestural electronic and musical means In doing so the collection redefines the act of storytelling Although the fields of media and narrative studies have been invigorated by a variety of theoretical approaches this volume seeks to avoid a dominant theoretical bias by providing instead a collection of concrete studies that inspire a direct look at texts rather than relying on a particular theory of interpretation A contribution to both narrative and media studies Narrative across Media is the first attempt to bridge the two disciplines

The Horror of the Ordinary Richard Krause, 2019-03-05 The stories in this collection address the ironies of ordinary life to expose their often horrifying undercurrents

The American Weird Julius Greve, Florian Zappe, 2020-10-01 Hitherto classified as a form of genre fiction or as a particular aesthetic quality of literature by H P Lovecraft the weird has now come to refer to a broad spectrum of artistic practices and expressions including fiction film television photography music and visual and performance art Largely under theorized so far The American Weird brings together perspectives from literary cultural media and film studies and from philosophy to provide a thorough exploration of the weird mode Separated into two sections the first exploring the concept of the weird and the second how it is applied through various media this book generates new approaches to fundamental questions Can the weird be conceptualized as a generic category as an aesthetic mode or as an epistemological position May the weird be thought through in similar ways to what Sianne Ngai calls the zany the cute and the interesting What are the transformations it has undergone aesthetically and politically since its inception in the early twentieth century Which strands of contemporary critical theory and philosophy have engaged in a dialogue with the discourses of and on the weird And what is specifically American about this aesthetic mode As the first comprehensive interdisciplinary study of the weird this book not only explores the writings of Lovecraft Caitl n Kiernan China Mi ville and Jeff VanderMeer but also the graphic novels of Alan Moore the music of Captain Beefheart the television show Twin Peaks and the films of Lily Amirpour

Matthew Barney David Lynch and Jordan Peele      Pet Sematary Shellie McMurdo, 2023-02-16 Most scholarship on Mary Lambert's Pet Sematary 1989 overwhelmingly focuses on the Stephen King novel 1983 and tends strongly towards housing the story within the Gothic literary tradition. The film itself is often absent from considerations of North American horror cinema of the 1980s and from wider horror scholarship in general. This Devil's Advocate stands as a corrective and provides a holistic analysis textual, contextual and industrial of the film in order to properly situate it as an important entry into the history of horror cinema. This book joins a growing body of works both journalistic and academic that aim to revisit older films in order to call attention to and/or redress the gendered imbalance in our written horror histories. McMurdo charges Pet Sematary with several contributions to the horror genre as an important entry within the tradition of grief horror as a horror film that both adheres to and defies the generic conventions of its historical context, one both engaged with and respondent to its time of creation as a film that changed the fortunes of the cinematic Stephen King brand on the cusp of a new decade. Pet Sematary is the highest grossing horror film directed by a woman in cinematic history and it stands as a story that we keep returning to as seen by the 1992 sequel, the 2019 remake and a forthcoming prequel. Pet Sematary's modern relevance and importance to genre history then is manifold and this book argues it is past time for its reconsideration as a classic of horror cinema.

The First Nine Books of the Danish History Saxo (Grammaticus), 1894      The First Nine Books of the Danish History of Saxo Grammaticus Saxo (Grammaticus), Oliver Elton, 1894      Lippincott's Monthly Magazine, 1912      The Juridical Review, 1918      The Ordinary Christopher Ritchie, 2017-12-27 Indies 2015 BOOK AWARD WINNER HORROR TV Presenter JULIETTE FOSTER Christopher Ritchie's writing is reminiscent of Stephen King's The Shining. An allegory laden horror satire in which Stanley, one of the ordinary, is so evil his touch alone freezes girls' minds with fear.      Traditional tales of the English and Scottish peasantry. with an intr. by H. Morley Allan Cunningham, 1887      Pittsburgh and Allegheny Illustrated Review John William Leonard, 1889      The Holy Bible, According to the Authorized Version (A.D. 1611) Frederic Charles Cook, 1875      The Holy Bible, 1873      Traditional Tales of the English and Scottish Peasantry Allan Cunningham, 1887      "The" Holy Bible, According to the Authorized Version (A.D. 1611): Kings II., Chronicles, Ezra, Nehemiah, Esther Frederic Charles Cook, 1873      The Holy Bible, According to the Authorized Version (A.D. 1611): Romans-Philemon Frederic Charles Cook, 1873      Minnesota Magazine, 1900      The life of Alexander Duff George Smith, 1879      The Literary World, 1914
