Thaddeus Metz, Joshua W. Seachris

Making Life Meaningful:

Meaning in Life Thaddeus Metz, 2013-10 What makes a person's life meaningful Thaddeus Metz argues that no existing theory does full justice to the key requirements of morality enquiry and creativity He offers a new answer to the question meaning in life is a matter of intelligence contoured toward fundamental conditions of human existence Finding Meaning in an Imperfect World Iddo Landau, 2017 Is it possible for life to be meaningful when the world is filled with suffering and when so much depends merely upon chance Landau argues our lives often are or could be made meaningful we've just been setting the bar too high for evaluating what meaning there is He offers new theories and practical advice that awaken us to the meaning already present in our lives and demonstrates how we can enhance it Human Interests Nicholas Rescher, 1990 Philosophical anthropology is the philosophical study of the conditions of human existence and the issues that confront people in the conduct of their everyday lives This book surveys from a contemplative philosophical point of view a wide variety of human interest issues including happiness luck aging the meaning of life optimism and pessimism morality and faith and belief The author's deliberations blend historical theoretical and personal perspectives into philosophical appreciation of the human condition The philosophers of Greek antiquity took philosophy to center around just this issue of intelligent living of determining the nature of life under the guidance of reason Such a perspective puts philosophical agenda a position it contested with the philosophy of nature throughout classical antiquity In more recent times however its prominence has declined no doubt the author suggests because modern man's achievements have been more notable in the natural than in the human science

What Makes Life Meaningful? Thaddeus Metz, Joshua W. Seachris, 2023-11-30 Can human life be meaningful What does talk about life's meaning even mean What is God's role if any in a meaningful life These three questions frame this one of a kind debate between two philosophers who have spent most of their professional lives thinking and writing about the topic of life's meaning In this wide ranging scholarly conversation Professors Thaddeus Metz and Joshua W Seachris develop and defend their own unique answers to these questions while responding to each other's objections in a lively dialog format Seachris argues that the concept of life's meaning largely revolves around three interconnected ideas mattering purpose and sense making that a meaningful human life involves sufficiently manifesting all three and that God would importantly enhance the meaningfulness of life on each of these three fronts Metz instead holds that talk of life's meaning is about a variety of properties such as meriting pride transcending one's animal self making a contribution and authoring a life story For him many lives are meaningful insofar as they exercise intelligence in positive robust and developmental ways Finally Metz argues that God is unnecessary for an objective meaning that suits human nature Metz and Seachris develop and defend their own unique answers to these three questions while responding to each other's objections in a dialog format that is accessible to students though given their new contributions will be of great interest to scholars as well

COVID-19 and Existential Positive Psychology (PP2.0): The New Science of Self-Transcendence Paul T. P. Wong, Claude-Hélène Mayer, Gökmen Arslan, In the era of COVID 19 many people have suffered high levels of stress and mental health problems To cope with the widespread of suffering physical psychological social and economical the positive psychology of personal happiness is no longer the sole approach to examine personal wellbeing Other approaches such as Viktor Frankl s theory of self transcendence provide a promising framework for research and intervention on how to achieve resilience wellbeing and happiness through overcoming suffering and self transcendence The existential positive psychology of suffering complements the positive psychology of happiness which is championed by Martin Seligman as two equal halves of the circle of wellbeing and optimal mental health This Research Topic aims to examine the different approaches to Positive Psychology and their influence on individual wellbeing during the COVID 19 era One of the exciting development in the positive psychology of wellbeing is the mounting research on the adaptive benefits of negative emotions such as shame guilt and anger as well as the dialectical process of balancing negative and positive emotions As an example based on all the empirical research and Frankl s self transcendence model Wong has developed the existential positive psychology of suffering PP2 0 as the foundation for flourishing Here are a few main tenets of PP2 0 1 Life is suffering and a constant struggle throughout every stage of development 2 The search for self transcendence is a primary motive guided by the meaning mindset and mindful mindset 3 Wellbeing cannot be sustainable without overcoming and transforming suffering In this Research Topic we welcome diverse approaches discussing the following points The dialectic process of overcoming the challenges of every stage of development as necessary for personal growth and self transcendence The role of self transcendence in resilience virtue meaning and happiness The upside of negative emotions The new science of resilience based on cultivating the resilient mindset and character How to make the best use of suffering to achieve out potentials mental health

Making Meaning: Bob Lichtenbert, 2016-10-31 Making Meaning concerns how to live your life to make maximum impact It does this by being the first book ever to fully develop the idea of meaning defined as significant impact which is greatest idea since everything has it in some way This development emphasizes that values or ought s should s provide more meaning in one s life We have a crying need for this today because most of us have little to believe in Does my life have enough meaning is a life or death question This book takes a common sense approach to answering it The author describes his own seeking and making meaning to render this abstract idea more concrete Making Meaning explores the following eight sources of meaning 1 relationships 2 community 3 dialogue 4 work 5 art 6 search for God 7 possessions and 8 intangibles or nonphysical realities The last source potentially the largest is explained and argued for We have another crying need today to know more than physical things This book tries to satisfy yet another crying need today the objectivity of meaning This gives us external standards to judge and live by Today s widespread subjective view of meaning allows everyone to believe whatever they want This view is dangerously chaotic and wrong Toward the end Making Meaning tackles its major negative challenges meaninglessness nihilism the view that nothing matters eventually and extreme relativism Finally this book defines what is the meaning of life by drawing from all these sources A very brief survey of the history of thinking about the meaning of life including Socrates Plato and Aristotle concludes this book Welcome to the wonderful new field of meaningology About the cover image Making Meaning mostly involves drawing from its many sources as symbolized by the many good things in nature including the heights of mountaintops and the warm light of the sun
