Welcome to Cyberschool David Trend, 2001-07-11 Welcome to Cyberschool is a book about two highly charged and often emotional discussions in today's society One concerns the optimism and promise surrounding information technologies of computers and the internet the other involves the growing pessimism and despair about the nation's schools These narratives of technological optimism and educational pessimism converge with increasing frequency as school groups community leaders and political rivals battle each other over the best way to wire the nation's schools computerize every classroom and leave no child behind Welcome to Cyberschool is the first book length analysis of this confluence of technology and education in the information age

Scientific American, 2003 Visual Messages David M. Considine, Gail E. Haley, 1999-04-15 Connect the curriculum of the classroom with the curriculum of the living room This new edition of Considine and Haley's pioneering work helps you institute and maintain a viable program in visual or media literacy Fascinating background information on the visual literacy movement is followed by dozens of effective strategies and classroom activities that are ready to implement plus lists of resources for further exploration The activities span the curriculum and teach your students the critical viewing and media literacy skills they need in our media oriented world All activities are coded by grade level and curriculum area This is a vital resource for an emerging area of study

Rethinking Media Education Anita Nowak, Sue Abel, Karen Ross, 2007 This collection discusses and analyzes the efficacy of media education around the world paying particular attention to whether and how it improves the critical thinking skills of students Many books describe the importance of media education but few evaluate its effectiveness Implicit is a belief that without a thorough understanding of the extent to which media education achieves its aims or fails to do so its potential cannot be fulfilled Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts ,2009

Library & Information Science Abstracts ,2008 Cognitive and Social Development Through Digital Media Construction in an Urban After-school Community Linda Charmaraman,2006 Media Spectrum ,1995 Bulletin ,1990 Young People in a Digitalised World Europarat,2018 Youth participation in the digitalised world is nowadays a topic of high interest in the public sphere The authors of this publication aim to bring new perspectives and varied visions to the key questions of understanding how young people interact with all the opportunities the digital space has to offer and how they can use this space for causes relevant not only for themselves but also for the democratisation of the societies in which they live By doing so the authors strive to build knowledge on this topic illustrating how the digitalisation of contemporary European societies simultaneously offers significant opportunities and poses considerable challenges Publisher's description Tanzania and Unesco ,2017 Digital Citizenship Education Divina Frau-Meigs,Brian O'Neill,Alessandro Soriani,Vitor Tomé,Janice Patricia Richardson,Elizabeth Milovidov,2017 Most young people in Europe today were born and have grown up in the digital era Education authorities have the duty to ensure that these digital citizens are fully aware of the norms of appropriate behaviour when using constantly evolving technology and participating in digital life Despite worldwide efforts to address such issues there is a clear need for education authorities to take the lead on digital citizenship education and integrate it into school curricula In 2016 the Education Department of the Council of Europe began work to develop new policy orientations and strategies to help educators face these new challenges and to empower young people by helping them to acquire the competences they need to participate actively and responsibly in digital society This volume the first in a Digital Citizenship Education series reviews the existing academic and policy literature on digital citizenship education highlighting definitions actors and stakeholders competence frameworks practices emerging trends and challenges The inclusion of a wide selection of sources is intended to ensure sufficient coverage of what is an emergent topic that has yet to gain a strong foothold in either education or academic literature but has received wider policy attention Digital Youth, Innovation, and the Unexpected Tara McPherson,2008 How emergent practices and developments in young people's digital media can result in technological innovation or lead to unintended learning experiences and unanticipated social encounters Young people's use of digital media may result in various innovations and unexpected outcomes from the use of videogame technologies to create films to the effect of home digital media on family life This volume examines the core issues that arise when digital media use results in unintended learning experiences and unanticipated social encounters The contributors examine the complex mix of emergent practices and developments online and elsewhere that empower young users to function as drivers of technological change recognizing that these new technologies are embedded in larger social systems school family friends The chapters consider such topics as un equal access across economic racial and ethnic lines

media panics and social anxieties policy and Internet protocols media literacy citizenship vs consumption creativity and collaboration digital media and gender equity shifting notions of temporality and defining the public private divide Contributors Steve Anderson Anne Balsamo Justine Cassell Meg Cramer Robert A Heverly Paula K Hooper Sonia Livingstone Henry Lowood Robert Samuels Christian Sandvig Ellen Seiter Sarita Yardi Youth, Identity, and Digital Media David Buckingham, 2008 The contributors explore how young people use digital media to share ideas and creativity and to participate in networks that are small and large local and global intimate and anonymous They look at the emergence of new genres and forms from SMS and instant messaging to home pages blogs and social networking sites They discuss such topics as girl power online the generational digital divide young people and mobile communication and the appeal of the digital publics of MySpace considering whether these media offer young people genuinely new forms of engagement interaction and communication BOOK JACKET Digital Religion, Social Media, and Culture Pauline Hope Cheong, 2012 This anthology the first of its kind in eight years collects some of the best and most current research and reflection on the complex interactions between religion and computer mediated communication CMC The contributions cohere around the central question how will core religious understandings of identity community and authority shape and be re shaped by the communicative possibilities of Web 2 0 The authors gathered here address these questions in three distinct ways through contemporary empirical research on how diverse traditions across the globe seek to take up the technologies and affordances of contemporary CMC through investigations that place these contemporary developments in larger historical and theological contexts and through careful reflection on the theoretical dimensions of research on religion and CMC In their introductory and concluding essays the editors uncover and articulate the larger intersections and patterns suggested by individual chapters including trajectories for future research Spectra , 2001
