Moses Migrating Samuel Selvon, 1992 The Novels of Samuel Selvon Roydon Salick, 2001-04-30 The author of such works as A Brighter Sun 1952 The Lonely Londoners 1956 and The Plains of Caroni 1970 West Indian novelist Samuel Selvon is attracting growing amounts of scholarly attention Nonetheless criticism of his works has largely been imbalanced with most scholarship focusing primarily on his language This book corrects that imbalance by placing Selvon's novels within historical sociological and ideological contexts A new interpretation of Selvon's achievement as a novelist the volume looks for the first time at his works in terms of categories of novels peasant middle class and immigrant The book demonstrates that each category is different from the others and that novels within categories are similar Thus it provides a coherent vision of Selvon's canon It illustrates as well the development of Selvon's philosophy of West Indians as peasant bourgeois and immigrant In doing so it explores the significance of ethnicity in his works and discusses Selvon's imaginative apotheosis of the Indo Trinidadian peasant and the diminution of the Afro Trinidadian immigrant The volume also studies Selvon's fictional and rhetorical techniques and argues that his works range from Bildungsroman to picaresque to epic to satire The West Indian Novel and Its Background Kenneth Ramchand, 2004 An account of the emergence of the West Indian novel in English this work provides valuable insights into the social cultural and political background offering concise and focused accounts of the growth of education the development of literacy and the formation of West Indian Creole languages Creolizing Culture Maria Grazia Sindoni, 2006 In The Past Few Years Much Theoretical Debate Has Explored Several Cultural Issues In The Anglophone Caribbean Focusing On The Central Experience Of Colonialism As Well As On The Contemporary Postcolonial Condition And The Possible Formation Of Neo Colonial Configurations Some Of The Constituent Traits Of The Caribbean Experience Are Dealt With In This Study Such As The Relationship Between The Caribbean And Great Britain From A Cultural And Literary Perspective In The Twentieth Century Multiculturalism And Ethnicity The Interplay Of Orality And Literature And An Investigation Of Linguistic Issues In Particular The Creolization Of The English Language Under World Influences Different Strands Are Brought Together In The Analysis Of Sam Selvon's London Trilogy The Lonely Londoners Moses Ascending And Moses Migrating Considering Questions Of Identity For Ex Colonials In The Crucial Years Between The End Of World War II And The 1980s In Britain Relationships Between European Versus African And Indian Cultural Heritage Clash Of Cultures As Represented Via Language Ideas Of National Identity As An Imaginative Process Also Reflecting Dynamics Of Power Inside Society The Use Of Creole Represents An Ideal Clinging To Caribbean Modes Of Cultural Survival Which Is Also Buttressed By The Postcolonial Contamination Of The Traditional Western Bourgeois Genre The Novel After The Colonial Demise The Genre Of The Novel Mirrors Approaches Of Communication More Oral Oriented Than Those Linked To Western Written Aesthetic Values And The Strategies Used By Selvon Are Surveyed To Show The Interrelationships Between Language Power Literature And Cultural Identities The London Trilogy Is Analysed According To

Linguistic Literary And Cultural Paradigms Shedding Lights On The Relevance Of Selvon S Work For The Construction Of A Culturally Independent Caribbean Literature It Is Hoped That The Present Book Will Prove Immensely Useful To The Students And Researchers Of English Literature Concerned With The Works Of Sam Selvon While The Teachers Of The Subject Will Consider It An Ideal Reference Book The General Readers Will Find It Highly Interesting Kunapipi ,1995

The Anglo-caribbean Migration Novel María Lourdes López Ropero,2004 Toronto New York and London have become the new frontiers of Anglophone Caribbean literature one of the most vibrant and prolific world literatures written in English Drawing on new ethnographic trends The Anglo Caribbean Migration Novel Writing from the Diaspora approaches Caribbean literature as a multi centred diaspora This book highlights the distinctiveness of the different branches of the Caribbean literary diaspora in the Anglo American world through writers such as Samuel Selvon Caryl Phillips Paule Marshall Austin Clarke and Dionne Brand The volume is a response to the need for a deeper focus on the articulation of diversity within the Caribbean diaspora and its imaginative renderings Moses Ascending Samuel Selvon,Sam Selvon,2008-03-27 Sam Selvon s Moses Ascending depicts West Indian Immigration in England Moses a Trinidadian who has been in England for some years now represents immigrants who come from all corners of the world to seek a better life Like many immigrants he is hard working After years of living in a dingy basement he saves up enough money to buy a house Moses calls this his dream house in the beginning of the book but later on he realizes that the house is a piece of garbage Tiger's Triumph Susheila Nasta,Anna Rutherford,1995 Turkish Migration Literature in the UK Ayse Sen,2023-03-15 Seminar paper from the year 2022 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1.0 LMU Munich Fakultät für Sprach und Literaturwissenschaften course Refugee Tales Literature and Migration language English abstract While there is research about migration literature to the UK by various authors of different ethnicities social or economic backgrounds with different motives as well there is still a lack of British literature on Turkish migration to the UK Thus in the following paper my own experience of migration is the motivation for the work in hand and will present and analyse Turkish Literature in English mainly exploring the topic of Turkish migration to the UK First the migration background of Turkish immigrants in the United Kingdom will be analysed in contrast to the third and the second generation to show differences of second and third generation migrants and whether it is a way of assimilation Considering the UK s history with Commonwealth countries there is a lot of literature about South Asian immigrants to the UK Even with Samuel Selvon as a Caribbean novelist and short story writer of East Indian descent a writer born in Trinidad and being an immigrant himself it is visible that research has been done on the topic of migration and the diaspora experience on the topic of the Caribbean In his most successful book called The Lonely Londoner the diaspora experience is in focus On the other hand The Good Immigrant by Nikesh Shukla brings together twenty emerging British BAME writers poets journalists and artists that confront the issue of poverty of Black Asian and Minority Ethnic Groups in Britain Moreover European migration to the UK is also represented as seen in e

Writers of the Indian Diaspora Emmanuel S. Nelson, 1993-04-13 The fifty eight writers included in this new sourcebook have roots in India or less frequently in Pakistan Bangladesh or Sri Lanka but represent diverse geographical areas of the Indian Diaspora from the South Pacific to South America from the Indian Ocean islands of Mauritius and Singapore to the cities and suburbs of London New York Johannesburg and Toronto Their lives works themes and critical receptions are examined individually but with attention to two central assumptions that people of the Indian diaspora share a diasporic consciousness generated by a complex network of historical connections spiritual affinities and unifying racial memories and that this shared sensibility is manifested in the cultural productions of the Indian diasporic communities around the world These concepts developed by Professor Nelson in a previous study Reworlding The Literature of the Indian Diaspora are here applied to a larger canvas of writers including major international figures such as V S Naipaul and Salman Rushdie and talented emerging writers The writers practice a variety of literary forms and represent an extraordinary diversity of ethnicities languages and religious traditions The women among them contribute the perspective of gender along with the themes of ethnicity migrancy and post coloniality shared with the male writers Each entry begins with relevant biographical information on the writer offers an interpretive summary of the major works provides an overview of the critical reception accorded the corpus and individual productions and concludes with detailed primary and secondary bibliographies A brief appendix lists each writer with place of birth and places of domicile The introduction to the volume by Professor Nalini Natarajan discusses several theoretical issues pertinent to Indian diasporic studies Of value to all literary collections and scholars this reference work will be of special interest for post colonial and Commonwealth studies

Caliban in Exile Margaret P. Joseph, 1992-05-27 The Caliban Prospero encounter in Shakespeare's The Tempest has evolved as a metaphor for the colonial experience The present study utilizes the Caliban symbol in examining the influence of colonialism in Caribbean literature focusing on the works of three major writers from the Caribbean islands Jean Rhys of British descent from Dominica George Lamming of African origin from Barbados and Sam Selvon of mixed Indian and Scottish heritage from Trinidad The works chosen are set in England where the writers and their characters experience a double displacement the alienation of the exiled in the country that once colonized their own islands They are outsiders unwelcome in Prospero's home country The novels dramatize the theme of physical and psychological exile Rhys's characters need mirrors in which they search for an assurance of identity Lamming's are torn by the conflict inherent in the tragic sense of life and Selvon's ironic language expresses the deepest sense of exile exile from one's own self Other Caribbean writers are included in the analysis and the volume concludes by examining contemporary writers for whom Caliban's role in literature appears to be changing Novelists like Earl Lovelace and Jamaica Kincaid demonstrate that it is possible to be an outsider in one's own country and that issues of class can be as corrosive as issues of race The focus has moved beyond physical exile but the spirit and strength of Caliban continue to pervade the new literature In giving expression to their anguish both the earlier and new Caribbean writers have created highly interesting and successful fiction This well crafted thematic study of Caribbean literature will be of great value to students teachers scholars and readers of Third World post colonial and multicultural literature
