Report of State Land Board and Veteran's Welfare Dept Oregon. State Land Board, 1880-1918. 20 include also the Report of the Rural Credit Dept     Drag Teen Jeffery Self, 2016-04-26 When life's a drag you've gotta drag it up JT feels like his life's hit a dead end. It looks like he'll always be stuck in Florida. His parents are anti-supportive. And his boyfriend Seth seems to be moving toward a bright future a long way from home. Scholarship money is nonexistent. After school work will only get JT so far. There's only one shot for him to become the next Miss Drag Teen in New York City. The problem with that? Well the only other time JT tried drag at a school talent show he was booed off the stage. And it's not exactly an easy drive from Florida to New York. But JT isn't going to give up. He, Seth, and their friend Heather are going to drag race up north so JT can capture the crown no matter how many feisty foes he has to face. Because when your future is on the line you have to be in it to win it one fraught and fabulous step at a time.

Blood on the Risers Michael O'Shea, 2013 This artfully crafted saga depicts in vivid detail the arduous journey of a young impressionable patriot yearning to fulfill his destiny in the turmoil of the 1960s. The author draws you close to him as he encounters stiff challenges to his basic values, his character as well as his faith in his fellow man. You'll taste the bitter prop blast as you stand in the open door beside him holding your breath while he soars through the icy sky to the mountainous drop zone below. Discover the true nature of this Nation's most valiant fighting men as he progressively learns what it takes to lead Green Berets into battle. Share the distinct smell of death while he clutches on to the remnants of his tattered soul constantly violated while he processes the tragedy of life unfolding before him. Witness the sheer resolve he and his men display in their commitment to their country despite the disrespect and utter contempt shown to them by their own countrymen. This factual rendering allows you to eavesdrop on the innermost workings of a Special Forces A Team as they train and ultimately prepare for battle. You'll be sprinting with a SOG Recon Team as they desperately work to elude the hordes of NVA soldiers feeling the impact of explosions and the crackling of rifle fire along the way. This read will provide you with a renewed appreciation of what men endure when they make the commitment to defend their country and their way of life despite the intimate danger and life long consequences that accompany that decision. With dialogue that keeps the pages turning Michael O'Shea transports us directly back to the real American experience in Vietnam. It's been nearly fifty years since the US inserted troops into jungles and villages more than 8,000 miles away. Stories such as Blood on the Risers are important and necessary for today's readers and future generations. Veterans like O'Shea are prized for sharing them.

Howard University College of Dentistry at 140 Years:

Jackson, Sinkford, Grant-Mills, 2024-02-04 Founded in 1881 Howard University College of Dentistry (HUCD) was one of the first United States dental schools to admit women equally as men. Now HUCD celebrates one hundred and forty years of educating minority dentists, dental specialists, and dental hygienists who practice in fifty states in America and fifty-three foreign countries. Howard University College of Dentistry 140 Years: Mission, Legacy, and Promise is an inspiring and informative look into the history of Howard University's dental school and its mission to educate minority dental professionals who offer their skills to marginalized groups across the United States. It highlights how bleak the provision of black dental care was in the United States after the Civil War and how the HUCD has risen to meet a myriad of challenges for over a century. After two years of meetings, research, retrieval of archival materials, review of oral histories, and delving deep into the heart and soul of the dental school, three authors with close ties to HUCD share the college's story with pride. The College of Dentistry's mission, legacy, and promise still continue. Howard Forward (1915) History of the Town of Princeton (1915) Documents of the Assembly of the State of New York (1915) New York (State). Legislature.

Assembly, 1907 The "Colored Hero" of Harpers Ferry Steven Lubet, 2015-08-27 This is the first and only biography of one of John Brown's African American comrades, John Anthony Copeland. Biennial Report of the Board of Land

Commissioners to the Legislative Assembly Oregon. Board of Land Commissioners, 1886 Five for Freedom Eugene L. Meyer, 2018-06-01 On October 16, 1859, John Brown and his band of eighteen raiders descended on Harpers Ferry. In an ill-fated attempt to incite a slave insurrection, they seized the federal arsenal, took hostages, and retreated to a fire engine house where they barricaded themselves until a contingent of US Marines battered their way in on October 18. The raiders were routed and several were captured. Soon after, they were tried, convicted, and hanged. Among Brown's fighters were five African American men: John Copeland, Shields Green, Dangerfield Newby, Lewis Leary, and Osborne Perry Anderson, whose lives and deaths have long been overshadowed by their martyred leader and who, even today, are little remembered. Only Anderson survived, later publishing the lone insider account of the event that most historians agree was a catalyst to the catastrophic American Civil War that followed. Five for Freedom is the story of these five brave men, the circumstances in which they were born and raised, how they came together at this fateful time and place, and the legacies they left behind. It is an American story that continues to resonate. Bulletin of the New York State Museum of Natural History, 1906 Bulletin of the New York State Museum, 1906 Report New York State Museum, New York State Museum and Science Service, 1907

Angel of War Kwando M. Kinshasa, 2024-10-21 This novel addresses the experiences and deeply felt personal values of a group of four college students from an Upstate New York state college visiting the historic Civil War town of Harpers Ferry, West Virginia. Conducting field research with their college professor and mentor, Dr. Jeremiah Angel Shiloh, will prove to be not only exciting but also challenging for their preset views on a host of issues both contemporary and historic. For example, though their summer field research project is scheduled to afford them the opportunity to see, walk amid, and examine artifacts from this mid-nineteenth century Southern American town, clearly the unfolding experience of conducting this research project will be not only interesting but for some also personally challenging. They soon realize that for many field researchers, one's personality may in fact be either a restrictive challenge or enhanced advantage when attempting to understand the past or comprehend the possible favorable or unfavorable future. However, central to this novel are the students' thoughts provoking discussions and efforts to connect previous notions of the important strategic role of Harpers Ferry in the American Civil War and the importance of the attack on the town in October 1859 by armed Black and White insurgents under the leadership of antislavery activist John Brown Of even more significance in this novel is the role the five Black insurgents in this attack and of one in particular who will survive the ordeal With that in mind this two part novel provides the reader with a clearer understanding of the sinews of historical research and the often tantalizing intrigues it offers     Annual Report New York State Museum,1907 These reports are made up of the reports of the director geologist paleontologist botanist and entomologist and museum Bulletins and Memoirs issued as advance sections of the reports N Y State Museum Bulletin 66 p 241     Bulletin New York State Museum and Science Service,1906     The War Work of the County of Lennox and Addington Walter Stevens Herrington,Rev.
