Nation Building In The Post Soviet Borderlands:

Nation-building in the Post-Soviet Borderlands Graham Smith, 1998-09-10 This book examines how national and ethnic identities are being re forged in the post Soviet borderland states The Limits of Culture Brenda Shaffer, 2006 Experts analyze the effect of cultural interests on the foreign policy of states in the Caspian region including Iran Azerbaijan Armenia Georgia Afghanistan Kazakhstan and Pakistan After Communism: Perspectives on Democracy (p) Donald R. Kelley, 2003 In this collection top scholars of Soviet and post Soviet studies convene to explore communism's aftermath They consider state building and constitutionalism the transition to market capitalism and democracy across Eastern Europe the political development of Muslim states the complex and differential developments of electoral systems the risks and opportunities of nationalism and new political and economic activities in Russia from corruption to contracts Editor Donald Kelley introduces the volume with a synthesis of the theoretical and empirical findings of the volume and his brief chapter introductions place each contribution in relation to the other essays and to larger debates on democratization

National Minorities and Citizenship Rights in Lithuania, 1988-93 V. Popovski, 2000-11-08 This book examines the emergence of nationalism in Lithuania specifically the Lithuanian national movement known as Sajudis and its approach towards the citizenship rights of national minorities The study concentrates on the period between 1988 and 1993 when the national majority and minorities began forming and debating citizenship rights The question of citizenship rights of national minorities is not ordinarily viewed as a problem with regard to Lithuania and there has consequently been minimal attention devoted to this topic This book addresses this neglect and brings the underlying assumptions into critical perspective by analysing the Lithuanian situation not just according to the letter of the law but also in terms of how these laws were implemented and how the minorities responded to them In doing so the book explores the conflict which emerged between the growing national movement and the ideals of citizenship such as multicultural pluralism diversity and heterogeneity The book therefore has relevance to all those who are interested in postcommunist societies and in particular the tensions that frequently develop between nationalism and citizenship

The Legacy of State Socialism and the Future of Transformation David Lane, 2002-04-03 Taking stock of the first decade of the transformation in the former Soviet bloc this timely book explores the legacies of state socialism and attempts by once communist countries to move toward a democratic market oriented system Leading international scholars consider the ways traditions interact with other factors both domestic and foreign to influence the course of social political and economic change With its blend of theory and case studies and its clear narrative this book will be a valuable text for students of transition Russian politics and the transformation of Eastern Europe Visit our website for sample chapters

Nation, Region and History in Post-communist Transitions Peter W. Rodgers, 2008 Since independence in 1991 issues of nation and identity have become highly debated topics in Ukraine This monograph explores not only how national identity is being re constructed by the Ukrainian state but also the processes by which it is negotiated through society The central argument of this work is that too much attention concerning identity in Ukraine has focused on markers of ethnicity and language Instead the author advocates a regional approach engaging with the issue of how Ukraine's regional differences affect nation building processes Following the tumultuous events of the Orange Revolution the view of Ukraine as a country inherently divided between East and West has re emerged to become a popular explanation for political events The study outlines the necessity for academics policymakers and indeed politicians to veer away from this simplistic West versus East divide The book advocates an analysis of Ukraine's unique brand of regionalism not in terms of divisions but in terms of regional differences and diversity The author deconstructs the concept of Eastern Ukraine by focusing on three Ukrainian localities all adjacent to the Ukrainian Russian border The study examines how individuals provide their own understanding of the place of their region within the wider processes of nation building across Ukraine In doing so the book develops a regional approach to the study of identity politics in Ukraine

Film and Identity in Kazakhstan Rico Isaacs, 2018-02-07 Cinema and nationalism are two fundamentally modern phenomena but how have films shaped our understanding of the creation the imagining of Central Asian nations Here Rico Isaacs uses cinema as an analytical lens to explore how the Kazakh national identity has been constructed and contested Drawing on an analysis of Kazakh films from the last century and featuring new interviews with directors and critics involved in the Central Asian film industry his book traces the construction of nationalism within Kazakh cinema from the country's inception as a Soviet Republic to a modern independent nation Isaacs identifies four narratives since the collapse of the Soviet Union a warrior like ethnic narrative rooted in the 18th Century struggles against the Mongolian Oirat tribes a civic inspired narrative cemented in the Stalinist deportations of the 1930s and 40s a religious narrative founded within the mystic and philosophical religion of Tengrism and the cult of the Sky God and a socio economic narrative which roots Kazakh nationhood and identity in contemporary social divisions the lived day to day experiences of ordinary citizens and the struggles they face with authority These last two tropes demonstrate how cinema has emerged as a site of dissent against the country's authoritarian regime under President Nazarbayev Film and Identity in Kazakhstan advances our understanding of Kazakhstan and nationalism by demonstrating the multiple and inessential character of each and illustrates the important role of cinema in contesting political power in the post Soviet space

Borderland Identities Madeleine Hurd, 2006 Nation-Building and Common Values in Russia Pål Kolstø, Helge Blakkisrud, 2004 Nation building in Russia a value oriented strategy Pål Kolstø Value consensus and social cohesion in Russia Guri Tyldum and Pål Kolstø Peculiarities of nation building in the Republic of Komi Iurii Shabaev Bashkortostan preconditions and prospects of civic integration in a multiethnic region Ildar Gabdrafikov and Aidar Enikeev Republic of Dagestan nation building inside Russia's womb Enver Kisriev The lonely heart of the world nation building and common values in Novosibirsk Oblast Sergei Moiseev Nation building and common values in St Petersburg Grigorii V Golosov and Iulia Shevchenko Moscow's values masses and elite Vladimir Shlapentokh Russian

Theoretical and Comparative Perspectives on Nationalism Taras Kuzio, 2007

This volume brings together 15 articles divided into four sections on the role of nationalism in transitions to democracy the application of theory to country case studies and the role played by history and myths in the forging of national identities and nationalisms The book develops new theories and frameworks through engaging with leading scholars of nationalism Hans Kohn's propositions are discussed in relation to the applicability of the term civic with no ethno cultural connotations to liberal democracies Rogers Brubaker over the usefulness of dividing European states into civic and nationalizing states when the former have historically been nationalizers Will Kymlicka on the applicability of multiculturalism to post communist states and Paul Robert Magocsi on the lack of data to support claims of revivals by national minorities in Ukraine The book also engages with transitology over the usefulness of comparative studies of transitions in regions that underwent only political reforms and those that had quadruple transitions implying simultaneous democratic and market reforms as well as state and nation building A comparative study of Serbian and Russian diasporas focuses on why ethnic Serbs and Russians living outside Serbia and Russia reacted differently to the disintegration of Yugoslavia and the USSR The book dissects the writing of Russian and Soviet history that continues to utilize imperial frameworks of history analyzes the re writing of Ukrainian history within post colonial theories and discusses the forging of Ukraine's identity within theories of Others as central to the shaping of identities The collection of articles proposes a new framework for the study of Ukrainian nationalism as a broader research phenomenon by placing nationalism in Ukraine within a theoretical and comparative perspective

History, Language and Society in the Borderlands of Europe Barbara Törnquist Plewa, 2006

The Language of the Moldovans Matthew H. Cisca, 2007-06-07 Who are the Moldovans The Language of the Moldovans explores this question from the perspective of debates about the languages spoken by the people of this ex Soviet state Locating language as a central point of both cohesion and conflict in the region's recent history the peculiarities of the Moldovans are illustrated by a survey of language attitudes a series of ethnographic interviews and extensive observations by the author The result is an image of an emerging nation that is at once similar to the experiences of other ex Soviet states and uniquely complex Much of that complexity lies in the population's extensive multilingualism and in uncertainty about the Romanian ness of the official language This cross discipline volume is of great interest to advanced students and researchers of linguistics political science and Eastern European studies

Security and Sovereignty in the Former Soviet Union Ruth Deyermond, 2008 Among the contentious issues that come into play in relations between Russia and the other post Soviet states security concerns are arguably at the top of the list This text explores the links between post Soviet security politics and the development of state sovereignty in the region
