National Service Social Economic And Military Impacts:

National Service Michael Wayne Sherraden, Donald J. Eberly, 1982 Socio-Legal Foundations of Civil-Military Relations James B. Jacobs, 1986-01-01 The Revival of Values Education in Asia & the West W. K. Cummings, S. Gopinathan, Y. Tomoda, 2014-06-28 It is clear from cross national investigations that the concern with values education is universal but that national approaches to the critical questions confronting value educators are extraordinarily diverse This volume begins by examining the context of the revival of values education and asks why it is gaining new impact in national and local educational systems Chapter 2 helps to locate values education in its historical time and place The case studies presented in Chapters 3 9 provide examples of the major variations in national practice in Asia and the West and the concluding chapter identifies many of the options open to educational leaders The aim of the book is to provide both practitioners and scholars with insights into the latest developments so that they can approach their work with broader vision and compassion Future Survey Annual 1983 Michael Marien, 1984-01-01 The Palgrave Handbook of Volunteering, Civic Participation, and Nonprofit Associations David Horton Smith, Robert A. Stebbins, Jurgen Grotz, 2017-01-18 Written by over 200 leading experts from over seventy countries this handbook provides a comprehensive state of the art overview of the latest theory and research on volunteering civic participation and nonprofit membership associations The first handbook on the subject to be truly multinational and interdisciplinary in its authorship it represents a major milestone for the discipline Each chapter follows a rigorous theoretical structure examining definitions historical background key analytical issues usable knowledge and future trends and required research The nine parts of the handbook cover the historical and conceptual background of the discipline special types of volunteering the major activity areas of volunteering and associations influences on volunteering and association participation the internal structures of associations the internal processes of associations the external environments of associations the scope and impacts of volunteering and associations and conclusions and future prospects This handbook provides an essential reference work for third sector research and practice including a valuable glossary of terms defining over eighty key concepts Sponsored by the International Council of Voluntarism Civil Society and Social Economy Researcher Associations ICSERA www.icsera.org it will appeal to scholars policymakers and practitioners and helps to define the emergent academic discipline of voluntaristics Select Commission on Voluntary Opportunities Act United States. Congress. House. Committee on Education and Labor. Subcommittee on Select Education, 1982 Life Lines Rose Ramsay, Bill Ramsay, 2018-04-07 This is the story of two lives and a marriage that span a period of great changes in the way we live Roses family home on a small farm in East Tennessee didnt have electricity until she was in her teens Bill was born in Bethlehem Pennsylvania where his father was a steelworker when not unemployed who became a labor leader Indoor plumbing was introduced to their homes when they were youngsters Telephones radios and cars were novelties They experienced and participated in improvements in medicine technology and communications They also experienced upheavals in civil rights and race relations family life patterns and even basic values Their story memories and reflections represent happy productive and blessed lives in contrast to the superficial hollow and broken lives featured on the news every day While this book is primarily a record of one family it includes observations and insights about life not particular limited to one familys experience A life span of eighty six years including a marriage of sixty five years has seen many changes Bill and Rose have reflected on the changes that have affected their lives and that they have seen What changes have been for the better Where have we gone wrong Looking back from the distance of age gives a perspective to culture and values Their reflections on the civil rights struggle and race relations on the way women experience childbirth and view their roles on changing family values on faith and on what is important in life are thoughtful commentaries Reflections are recorded after each section of the book placing the perspective of age in the context of life experience National Service Richard Danzig, Peter L. Szanton, 1986 Social

Consciousness and Career Awareness John S. Swift, 1990 Contemporary college students apparent lack of exposure to citizenship lack of concern for others and ignorance of how to be involved citizens has prompted a call for involving students in volunteer service at the national level or as part of the undergraduate experience This monograph begins by discussing volunteer programs as they relate to higher education including the role universities have traditionally played and the involvement of various branches of the university community A further section treats the characteristics and desires of contemporary college students their environmental economic social political and financial conditions lessons of the student activism of the 1960s and the effects of civic participation The next section explores the economic social and personal aspects of volunteering and philanthropy National service programs are the subject of the fourth section which discusses their essential elements congressional efforts President Bush s proposal to create some type of volunteer service corps and the effect of national service on higher education The next section examines the role and action of higher education in service programs including curricular changes service learning education work study programs collaborative efforts between higher education government and the private sector outreach opportunity leagues campus compacts faculty participation and evaluating the effects of civic participation An index and a bibliography of 140 references are included JB Future Survey
