Voices First Nations Terri Johnson, 2012-03-23 Preface I write for the expression of my soul It is a release of my inner energies that are begging to come out The release of this book was not only a journey but an awakening as well My words and thoughts evolving in a whole new level I wanted to embrace more aspects of poetry and try to reach outside the box This book has been a great sounding board for that I wanted to formulate my ideas and give more picture and vision to what I was trying to say Poetry for me encompasses my life It is the epitome of what I see in everyday aspects of my life Every nuance every minute and every detail that rolls through me all hold a bit of poetry that I love embracing It s the little things that capture the inspiration for me and it is why I wanted to make those same pictures come to life as they do in my mind s eye I have gone through a lot in my life and through those trials I have been able to bring myself back up Striving to be more than what I can be The strength I capture within my writing I have noticed has now become stronger and it is why I want to share my poetic evolution with you I also want to pay tribute to the guests that I have chosen to feature in this book I have collaborated with two of the best people that I have had the pleasure to work with In the poem Falling Rain KD Morris has graced me with his poetic talent by sharing his mind with that of my poetic musings I have been blessed to have his insight bring clarity to this piece In the two poems The Wind carried us home to each other and Wish you were here by my side San Gerardo Rafa makes his appearance His help in the two pieces created such a beautiful poetic harmony that both need to be shared I thank both poets for helping me in my written journey The last part of my book I have decided to try something a little different I have handpicked three different artists Carla May Listener Jonathon Taylor and Dion Tootosis in which to show different aspects of how poetry can be communicated All three artists are of aboriginal descent and all three are Canadian born I m extremely honored to have them in my book They add a special flavor and their words need to be acknowledged Terri L Johnson

Warfare, Trade, and the Indies in British Literature, 1652-1771 Peter Craft,2021-06-22 Warfare Trade and the Indies in British Literature 1652 1771 demonstrates how British travel narratives of the long eighteenth century distinguished between Mughal and American Indians Through a New Historical and postcolonial lens it argues that the distinction between East and West Indians was widely recognized and shaped British people s tendency to view Mughal Indians as similar and in some ways even superior to Europeans while they disdained native populations in the Americas Drawing on representations of Indians in Peter Heylyn s critically neglected 1652 Cosmographie as well as representations in the works of canonical literary authors such as John Dryden Richard Steele and Henry Mackenzie this monograph provides a more nuanced account of the origins and d evolution of Indian stereotypes than scholars have to date A text committed to the exposure and eradication of colonial rhetoric and violence Peter Craft s Warfare Trade and the Indies in British Literature 1652 1771 proposes a modification of Saidian postcolonial theory that better applies to texts of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries
