Nathaniel Hawthorne Jean Normand,1970      The Style of Hawthorne's Gaze John Dolis,2014-07-14 An exploration of Nathaniel Hawthorne's narrative technique and unique vision of the world The Style of Hawthorne's Gaze is an unusual and insightful work that employs a combination of critical strategies drawn from art history philosophy psychoanalysis and contemporary aesthetic and literary theory to explore Nathaniel Hawthorne's narrative technique and his unique vision of the world Dolis studies Hawthorne's anti technological and essentially Romantic view of the external world and examines the recurring phenomena of lighting motion aspectivity fragmentation and imagination as they relate to his descriptive techniques Dolis sets the world of Hawthorne's work over and against the aesthetic and philosophical development of the world understood as a view from its inception in the camera obscura and perspective in general to its 19th century articulation in photography In light of this general technology of the image and drawing upon a wide range of contemporary critical theories Dolis begins his study of Hawthorne at the level of description where the world of the work first arises in the reader's consciousness Dolis shows how the work of Heidegger Merleau Ponty Freud Lacan and Derrida can provide fresh insights into the sophisticated style of Hawthorne's perception of and system for representing reality      The Biography Book Daniel S. The Art of Authorial Presence Gary Richard Thompson,1993 The critical literary world has spent a wealth of thought and words on the question of Hawthorne himself Where does he stand in his works In history In literary tradition In this major new study G R Thompson recasts the Hawthorne question to show how authorial presence in the writer's works is as much a matter of art as the writing itself The Hawthorne who emerges from this masterful analysis is not as has been supposed identical to the provincial narrator of his early tales instead he is revealed to be the skillful manipulator of that narrative voice an author at an ironic distance from the tales he tells By focusing on the provincial tales as they were originally conceived as a narrative cycle Thompson is able to recover intertextual references that reveal Hawthorne's preoccupation with framing strategies and variations on authorial presence The author shows how Hawthorne deliberately constructs sentimental narratives only to deconstruct them Thompson's analysis provides a new aesthetic context for understanding the whole shape of Hawthorne's career as well as the narrative ethical and historical issues within individual works Revisionary

in its view of one of America's greatest authors The Art of Authorial Presence also offers invaluable insight into the problems of narratology and historiography ethics and psychology romanticism and idealism and the cultural myths of America

CliffsNotes on Hawthorne's The House of the Seven Gables Darlene B Morris, 1964-10-14 The original CliffsNotes study guides offer expert commentary on major themes plots characters literary devices and historical background The latest generation of titles in this series also feature glossaries and visual elements that complement the classic familiar format CliffsNotes on The House of Seven Gables helps you explore this tale of a family curse and inherited sin Once wealthy and now in a state of constant degeneration both the Maule family and their grand mansion fall to the forces of society and mystery They can escape from the bondage which the past imposes but how This concise supplement to Hawthorne's The House of Seven Gables helps you understand the overall structure of the novel actions and motivations of the characters and the social and cultural perspectives of the author Features that help you study include Chapter by chapter summaries and commentaries A chronology of the author's life offers insight into his writing style Descriptive character analyses Critical essays on the Preface to the novel and on Hawthorne's use of symbols A review section that tests your knowledge and suggested essay topics Classic literature or modern day treasure you'll understand it all with expert information and insight from CliffsNotes study guides The Nathaniel Hawthorne Journal, 1978 Nathaniel Hawthorne: The critical response, assessments of individual works since 1900 Brian R. Harding, 1995 Hawthorne's the Marble Faun Richard E. Mezo, 1999-05 Since its publication in 1860 critics have questioned the artistic value of Hawthorne's The Marble Faun A revival of critical interest during the 1950s and 1960s has done little to change a generally unfavorable opinion of the work With a few notable exceptions most recent critics believe The Marble Faun to be inferior to Hawthorne's other completed romances Such opinions however usually seem to be based upon the personal taste of the individual critic rather than upon any sort of objective artistic standards The purpose of this study is to examine and evaluate the various critical approaches to The Marble Faun These interpretations provide the basis for a re appraisal of the work A study of the structure the main themes and the characters of The Marble Faun reveals that it is not an inferior work of art In many respects The Marble Faun reflects the maturity of Hawthorne's artistic and philosophical beliefs The Marble Faun is a work capable of standing on its own merits Some critics have misunderstood Hawthorne's aesthetic principles Hawthorne thought that art should be used to suggest moral values The power of art he believed was in its suggestiveness The creation of an ideal beauty which has no exact counterpart in the material world suggests the reality of an unknowable divine providence However the value of a work of art depends upon the mood of the viewer The viewer must assist the artist with his sympathy and imagination in an act of continual creation The work of art will reflect back only those qualities which are brought to it by the viewer Hawthorne's view of life is similar to the philosophy expressed by modern Christian existentialists Throughout his writings Hawthorne's concern for humanity is evident In The Marble Faun Hawthorne explores a problem which has become almost an obsession of modern man This problem is the question of man's moral position in what seems to be a meaningless if not hostile universe The most important theme of The Marble Faun is a consideration of the consequences of man's alienation from other men from God and from nature The structure and the themes of The Marble Faun are developed through the actions of the major characters Hilda Miriam Donatello and Kenyon are each transformed by a fall from relative innocence into a world of suffering humanity Donatello's transformation from faun to man is more striking than the transformations of the other three characters and it is his fall which leads to the question of the felix culpa Although Hilda and Kenyon are ultimately less mature characters than Donatello and Miriam they also benefit from their experiences in Rome Hawthorne's belief in the brotherhood of all men is demonstrated by the experiences of the major characters in The Marble Faun Whether or not it is their wish each of these characters must accept the responsibility for his own actions and each must become involved with humanity It is Hawthorne's deep concern for the human condition profoundly expressed in his art which makes The Marble Faun a work of enduring importance to our civilization

Found Eric J. Sundquist,2019-12-01 Originally published in 1979 Eric Sundquist takes four representative writers James Fenimore Cooper Henry David Thoreau Nathaniel Hawthorne and Herman Melville and considers the way in which each grapples with the crucial issues of genealogy and authority in his works From all four a common pattern emerges the desire to revolt against the past is countered by the need to invoke or even repeat it Sundquist's approach to the texts is psychoanalytic but he does not attempt a clinical dissection of each writer rather he determines how personal crisis became material for engaging with larger questions of social and literary crisis
