Nathaniel Hawthorne The English Experience 1853 1864:

Nathaniel Hawthorne Raymona E. Hull,1980-01-01      Nathaniel Hawthorne Raymona Hull,2010-11-23 In 1853 when he was forty nine and at the height of his literary career Nathaniel Hawthorne accepted the post of U S consul at Liverpool England as a reward for writing the campaign biography of his college friend President Franklin Pierce Hawthorne s departure for Europe marked a turning point in his life While Our Old Home shrewd essays on his observations in England The Marble Faun a romance set in Italy and the English Notebooks and French and Italian Notebooks were all results of his European residence he returned to Concord in 1860 frustrated depressed and sick He died in 1864      Multicultural Writers from Antiquity to 1945 Alba Amoia,Bettina L. Knapp,2001-10-30 The final decades of the 20th century have seen an explosion of interest in multiculturalism But multiculturalism is more than an awareness of the different cultures comprising contemporary societies For centuries people from around the world have come in contact with cultures other than their own and their exposure to multiple cultures has fostered their creativity and ability to make lasting contributions to civilization The effects of multiculturalism are especially apparent in literature since writers tend to be particularly aware of their environments and record their experiences This reference includes alphabetically arranged entries for more than 100 world writers from antiquity to 1945 who were significantly influenced by cultures other than their own Included are entries for major canonical Ancient and Modern writers of the Western and Eastern worlds Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a brief biography a discussion of multicultural themes and contexts a summary of the writer s critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies By illuminating the shaping influence of multiculturalism on these writers the volume points to the lasting value of multiculturalism in the contemporary world      Hawthorne's Habitations Robert Milder,2013-01-04 Hawthorne s Habitations draws on letters manuscripts and the author s little studied French and Italian notebooks to present a portrait of four fascinating locations in the middle of the nineteenth century and offer a convincing portrait of the way place informed Hawthorne s melancholy psychology and dark style

Anglo-American Travelers and the Hotel Experience in Nineteenth-Century Literature Monika Elbert,Susanne Schmid,2017-08-24 This volume examines the hotel experience of Anglo American travelers in the nineteenth century from the viewpoint of literary and cultural studies as well as spatiality theory Focusing on the social and imaginary space of the hotel in fiction periodicals diaries and travel accounts the essays shed new light on nineteenth century notions of travel writing Analyzing the liminal space of the hotel affords a new way of understanding the freedoms and restrictions felt by travelers from different social classes and nations As an environment that forced travelers to reimagine themselves or their cultural backgrounds the hotel could provide exhilarating moments of self discovery or dangerous feelings of alienation It could prove liberating to the tourist seeking an escape from prescribed gender roles or social class constructs The book addresses changing notions of nationality social class and gender in a variety of expansive or oppressive hotel milieu in the private space of the hotel room and in the public spaces foyers parlors dining areas Sections address topics including nationalism and imperialism the mundane vs the supernatural comfort and capitalist excess assignments trysts and memorable encounters in hotels and women s travels The book also offers a brief history of inns and hotels of the time period emphasizing how hotels play a large role in literary texts where they frequently reflect order and disorder in a personal and or national context This collection will appeal to scholars in literature travel writing history cultural studies and transnational studies and to those with interest in travel and tourism hospitality and domesticity The Nathaniel Hawthorne Review, 1999 Encyclopedia of the American Novel Abby H. P. Werlock, 2015-04-22 Praise for the print edition no other reference work on American fiction brings together such an array of authors and texts as this Elizabeth Gaskell John Chapple, 1997-06-15 This absorbing study of Elizabeth Gaskell s early life up to her marriage in 1832 is based almost entirely on new evidence Also using parish records marriage settlements property transfers wills record office documents letters journals and private papers John Chapple has recreated the background of one of the nineteenth century s greatest novelists
