National Liberation:

National Liberation Nigel Harris, 1993 Nationalism dominates modern politics The idea that the world consists primarily of nations and that these are the only proper basis for states has become a rarely questioned assumption Yet nationalism was an invention of nineteenth century Europe and just as it had a beginning so also could it come to an end      National Liberation in Postcolonial Southern Africa Christian A. Williams, 2015-10-08 This book traces the South West Africa People's Organization SWAPO across its three decades in exile through rich local histories of the camps where Namibian exiles lived in Tanzania Zambia and Angola Christian A Williams highlights how different Namibians experienced these sites as well as the tensions that developed within SWAPO as Namibians encountered one another and as officials asserted their power and protected their interests within a national community The book then follows Namibians who lived in exile into post colonial Namibia examining the extent to which divisions and hierarchies that emerged in the camps continue to shape how Namibians relate to one another today undermining the more just and humane society that many had imagined In developing these points about SWAPO the book draws attention to Southern African literature more widely suggesting parallels across the region and defining a field of study that examines post colonial Africa through the camp      Encyclopedia of Conflicts Since World War II James Ciment, 2015-03-27 Thoroughly revised to include 25 conflicts not covered in the previous edition as well as expanded and updated information on previous coverage this illustrated reference presents descriptions and analyses of more than 170 significant post World War II conflicts around the globe Organized by region for ease of access Encyclopedia of Conflicts Since World War II Second Edition provides clear in depth explanations of events not covered in such detail in any other reference source Including more than 180 detailed maps and 150 photos the set highlights the conflicts that dominate today's headlines and the events that changed the course of late twentieth century history      The National Question Berch Berberoglu, 2009 This volume examines the volatile nature and complex dynamics of national movements and ethnic conflict around the world      International Law Mohammed Bedjaoui, 1991 The arrival of the International Law Achievements and Prospects can fairly be described as a major event in international legal publishing It has been written by international lawyers from the North the South the East and the West whose differing origins and different or even opposed academic backgrounds have ensured that the book encapsulates and brings into focus the main forms of civilization and the principal legal systems of the world The book's most distinctive feature is its international multi cultural and polyphonic nature International Law Achievements and Prospects aims to inform and to educate to make the discipline of international law accessible to a very broad public and to promote a meeting of minds on fundamental notions key concepts and the guiding principles of international law over and beyond frontiers ideologies and doctrines In addition it is intended to provide a framework for thought to describe what international law is today to specify its nature define its purpose and show its strengths and also to point out its weaknesses All the contributing authors are or have been practitioners of international law Their contributions express a global view of international law which helps to unravel the complex reality of the contemporary world International Law Achievements and Prospects has been produced under the auspices of UNESCO its content also aspires to reflect in some measure the imprint of that Organization s sponsorship
