Love and Space in Contemporary African Diasporic Women's Writing

Jennifer Leetsch,2021-07-16 This book sets out to investigate how contemporary African diasporic women writers respond to the imbalances pressures and crises of twenty first century globalization by querying the boundaries between two separate conceptual domains love and space The study breaks new ground by systematically bringing together critical love studies with research into the cultures of migration diaspora and refuge Examining a notable tendency among current black feminist writers poets and performers to insist on the affective dimension of world making the book ponders strategies of reconfiguring postcolonial discourses Indeed the analyses of literary works and intermedia performances by Chimamanda Adichie Zadie Smith Helen Oyeyemi Shailja Patel and Warsan Shire reveal an urge of moving beyond a familiar insistence on processes of alienation or rupture and towards a new reparative emphasis on connection and intimacy to imagine possible inhabitable worlds

Friendship's Shadows Penelope Anderson,2012-08-06 Penelope Anderson s original study changes our understanding both of the masculine Renaissance friendship tradition and of the private forms of women s friendship of the eighteenth century and after It uncovers the latent threat of betrayal lurking within politicized classical and humanist friendship showing its surprising resilience as a model for political obligation undone and remade Incorporating authors from Cicero to Abraham Cowley and Margaret Cavendish to Mary Astell the book focuses on two extraordinary women writers the royalist Katherine Philips and the republican Lucy Hutchinson And it explores the ways in which they appropriate the friendship tradition in order to address problems of conflicting allegiances in the English Civil Wars and Restoration As Penelope Anderson suggests their writings on friendship provide a new account of women s relation to public life organized through textual exchange rather than bodily reproduction

Q & A Queer And Asian

David L. Eng,Alice Y.

Hom,1998-08-24 What does it mean to be queer and Asian American at the turn of the century The writers activists essayists and artists who contribute to this volume consider how Asian American racial identity and queer sexuality interconnect in mutually shaping and complicating ways Their collective aim in the words of the editors is to articulate a new conception of Asian American racial identity its heterogeneity hybridity and multiplicity concepts that after all underpinned the Asian American moniker from its very inception Q A approaches matters of identity from a variety of points of view and academic disciplines in order to explore the multiple crossings of race and ethnicity with sexuality and gender Drawing together the work of visual artists fiction writers community organizers scholars and participants in roundtable discussions the collection gathers an array of voices and experiences that represent the emerging communities of a queer Asian America Collectively these contributors contend that Asian American studies needs to be more attentive to issues of sexuality and that queer studies needs to be more attentive to other aspects of difference especially race and ethnicity Vigorously rejecting the notion that a symmetrical relationship between race and homosexuality would weaken lesbian gay and queer movements the editors refuse to believe that a desirably queer world is one in which we remain perpetual aliens queer houseguests in a queer nation Writing Shame Kaye Mitchell,2019-11-01 Through readings of an array of recent texts literary and popular fictional and autofictional realist and experimental this book maps out a contemporary Western shame culture Love Letters of a Violinist, and Other Poems Eric Mackay,1892 Love Letters of a Violonist and Other Poems MacKay,1891
