What may be other law professors, other legal scholars, other documents, and so forth, discussed and have been a part of your past? Do you then consider yourself an anti-apartheid or a pro-apartheid person? What happened to those who were identified as anti-apartheid people? What happened to those people in other schools, and so forth? What is your present view? Do you consider yourself a pro-apartheid or an anti-apartheid person? Explain this, and so forth. Do you consider yourself an anti-apartheid person? What kind of research findings have you come across in your studies, reflecting your present views? Do you consider, nothing, nothing, nothing, except what you have said in your past, your present views? Do you consider yourself an anti-apartheid person? Explain this, and so forth.
