Lucky City Weston Bate,1978 Included brief discussion of Aboriginal way of life relations with whites place names Lucky City Weston Bate,2003 Lucky City ,1979 Eureka John Molony,2013-05-24 Before dawn on 3 December 1854 colonial troopers at Ballarat attacked a group of gold miners who had thrown up a stockade in defiance and defence Some diggers had guns but many were unarmed some twenty of them were killed along with four troopers In the decades that followed the truth of what happened that morning became obscured by partisans on both sides For many years the Eureka Stockade was regarded as a shameful event and almost forgotten more recently it has been celebrated as a righteous stand against injustice John Molony s Eureka vividly recreates the story of Eureka and unravels the myths that have come to surround it This new edition of Molony s classic work now beautifully illustrated with historic Eureka images will be welcomed by everyone with an interest in the history of Australian democracy Big White Lie John Fitzgerald,2007 This book pays attention to Chinese migration patterns debates social organisations and their business and religious lives and shows that they had every right to be counted as Australians even in White Australia The book s focus provides a refreshing new perspective on the important role the Chinese have played in Australia s past The City and Education in Four Nations Ronald K. Goodenow,William E. Marsden,Peter Clark,2003-12-04 The City and Education in Four Nations is a response to a long standing need for the placing of urban educational study in broader comparative contexts both historical and international This volume offers an account of the historical educational experiences of four major English speaking countries opening up new research agendas in a variety of fields An international team of contributors has been assembled combining historical and educational expertise and the work should interest scholars in a number of disciplines including urban history urban and comparative education social and public policy social and cultural history and the history of education People and Place Len Richardson,2020-05-04 This book traces the enduring relationship between history people and place that has shaped the character of a single region in a manner perhaps unique within the New Zealand experience It explores the evolution of a distinctive regional literature that both shaped and was shaped by the physical and historical environment that inspired it Looking westwards towards Australia and long shut off within New Zealand by the South Island s rugged Southern Alps the West Coast was a land of gold coal and timber In the 1950s and 1960s it nurtured a literature that embodied a sense of belonging to an Australasian world and captured the aspirations of New Zealand s emergent radical nationalism More recent West Coast writers observing the hollowing out of their communities saw in miniature and in advance the growing gulf between city and regional economies aligned to an older economic order losing its relevance Were they chronicling the last hurrah of a retreating age or crafting a literature of regional resistance The New A-Z of Empire C. Brad Faught,2011-05-30 The British Empire especially in its late Victorian heyday spanned the world and linked a quarter of world s population to Britain through a shared official allegiance to the Crown In the long history of empires the British imperial state was among the most powerful ever and a major global player A New A Z of Empire catches the current burgeoning interest in empires and covers over 400 years of British imperial history from the founding of the East India Company in 1600 to the First and Second British Empires the time of High Empire following the War of American Independence the unprecedented expansion of the Scramble for Africa the development of Dominion Status and the history often turbulent of decolonization and the growth of Commonwealth The 400 plus entries include a rich panoply of individuals territories treaties politics the law diplomacy war and peace administration business and commerce exploration literature art literature and scholarship Readers will find a mine of fascinating factual information in concise form with expert historical assessment cross referencing between entries and suggestions for further reading The valuable time line is essential to pick through the long period of complex history and links to key web resources are provided A New A Z of Empire is an indispensable tool for the scholar and student and for the general reader interested in the rich history of the British Empire a story of obscure foundation leading to dominance over a huge swathe of the globe now represented by mere pinpricks on the world map

Migration and the European City Christoph Cornelissen, Beat Kümin, Massimo Rospocher, 2022-03-07 Looking back over the centuries migration has always formed an important part of human existence Spatial mobility emerges as a key driver of urban evolution characterized by situation specific combinations of opportunities restrictions and fears This collection of essays investigates interactions between European cities and migration between the early modern period and the present Building on conceptual approaches from history sociology and cultural studies twelve contributions focus on policies representations and the impact on local communities more generally Combining case studies and theoretical reflections the volume's contributions engage with a variety of topics and disciplinary perspectives yet also with several common themes One revolves around problems of definition both in terms of demarcating cities from their surroundings and of distinguishing migration in a narrower sense from other forms of short and long distance mobility Further shared concerns include the integration of multiple analytical scales contextual factors and diachronic variables such as urbanization industrialization and the digital revolution
