Out Looking in Jan Cavanaugh, 2000 Cavanaugh's scholarship is distinguished by several qualities: detailed knowledge, a rare comparative awareness of adjacent disciplines, and of course a substantial synthetic knowledge of modern artistic developments in Western Europe and the U.S. Out Looking In will be relevant to a large and varied public. John E. Bowlt, author of Forbidden Art: Soviet Nonconformist Art 1956-1988 This is an essential book for scholars of modernism who are eager in the wake of post structuralist and post modernist reevaluations of the construction of modernism's history to broaden discussions beyond a narrow French orientation. It will serve as an important stimulus for rethinking European art in general in this period. Linda Dalrymple Henderson, University of Texas, Austin. Clearly written and well organized, Out Looking In will be the indispensable reference work in English on early modern Polish art. Cavanaugh's treatment, based on solid research and critical insight, is illuminating. Vojtech Jirat, Wasiutynski Professor of Art, Queen's University. The visual richness and comprehensiveness of Out Looking In will make it a primary resource in the West for images of early modern Polish art as well as for arguing for the centrality of Polish art to the discussion of European modernism. This is revisionism at its most insightful. Wendy Salmond, author of Arts and Crafts in Late Imperial Russia. This book goes a long way in correcting our geographically narrow understanding of European modernism. While arguing for Poland's place in the annals of artistic modernism, Cavanaugh elegantly manoeuvres between the sensitive issues determining national artistic identity and the international context of this debate. Myroslava M. Mudrak, Ohio State University. This is one of the most important critical analyses of turn of the century Polish art. Out Looking In will inspire a broad response from a wide international circle of historians of art, literature, and artistic culture. Wieslaw Juszczak, Art Institute of the Polish Academy of Sciences and Letters and Art History Department, University of Warsaw. Looking in the Mirror Out Nora Nita Bates, 2012-03-26 Of course angels are real. Maverick giggled to Nora over twenty years ago. She played with the baby, danced with Kat, and was very patient with Rant as she/he cursed in a fury within Noras psyche. Twenty years ago these parts presences were known but didnt reveal themselves to the outer world of psychiatry or fully to Nora because they were misinterpreted as symptoms of schizo affective disorder, depression, bipolar disorder, delusions, hallucinations, and psychosis.

So they went back in Noras mind and waited patiently to be heard Patience ended in 2010 when Rant exploded and took hold of the steering wheel literally Looking in the Mirror Out is Noras experience as her parts reveal themselves uncensored raw and exhaustedly as she and they get to know each other and work together in Noras inner and outer worlds Their experiences are unique yet encompass surprisingly common themes with anyone living in todays world
