Roger Hinterthuer, 2015-11-17 On a cold November morning a fourteen year old paperboy was delivering his route when he saw a brightly wrapped package on the roof of a parked car Curiosity got the best of him and when he picked it up it exploded killing him instantly This is the true story of the investigation of his murder and numerous other related murders which occurred over a fifteen year span It shows how investigators were able to link the murders to one man a motorcycle gang enforcer This story provides a comprehensive look into the criminal justice system and reveals not only its successes but also its failures From police officers to detectives to forensic experts to medical examiners to prosecuting attorneys to witnesses and even informants everyone contributed No one gave up It is the story of how all the pieces were put together the killer identified and the case presented for prosecution It also shows how one elected official became the biggest stumbling block to justice for all the victims The History of Liddesdale, Eskdale, Ewesdale, Wauchopedale and the

Debateable Land: "From the Twelfth Century to 1530." Robert Bruce Armstrong, 1883 Robin Hood Stephen Knight, 1999 The first collection of major scholarly studies of aspects of the Robin Hood tradition The legends of Robin Hood are very familiar but scholarship and criticism dealing with the long and varied tradition of the famous outlaw is as elusive as the identity of Robin himself and is scattered in a wide range of sources many difficult of access This book is the first to bring together major studies of aspects of the tradition The thirty one studies take a variety of approaches from archival exploration in quest of a real Robin Hood to a political angle seeking the social meaning of the texts across time to literary scholars concerned with origin structures and generic variation or moral and social significance also included are considerations of theatre and film studies and folklore and children's literature Overall the collection provides a valuable basis for further study STEPHEN KNIGHT is Professor of English Literature at the University of Wales Cardiff he is well known as an authority on the Robin Hood tradition and has edited the recently discovered Robin Hood Forrester's Manuscript

Food and Feast in Modern Outlaw Tales Alexander L. Kaufman, Penny Vlagopoulos, 2019-03-04 This collection of scholarly essays presents new work from an emerging line of inquiry modern outlaw narratives and the textual and cultural relevance of food and feasting Food its preparation and its consumption is presented in outlaw narratives as central points of human interaction community conflict and fellowship Feast scenes perform a wide variety of functions serving as cultural repositories of manners and behaviors catalysts for adventure or moments of regrouping and redirecting narratives The book argues that modern outlaw narratives illuminate a potent cross cultural need for freedom solidarity and justice and it examines ways in which food and feasting are often used to legitimate difference create discord and manipulate power dynamics
