Modern Slavery Guido Cuyvers, 2023-11-26

Slavery is not a relic of the past it s alive today For most people the word slavery evokes images of black slaves transported to America or ancient Rome and Greece Yet despite its formal abolition in most countries at the end of the nineteenth century slavery remains an insidious part of modern life In 2023 over 50 million people worldwide are still denied freedom exploited and traded as commodities From forced labor in agriculture fishing clothing construction and catering industries to sex trafficking in Europe slavery infiltrates industries globally including Western countries and often involves connections to Western companies Even in our daily lives as consumers buying cheap clothes tea cocoa or shrimp we unknowingly perpetuate this inhuman system Slavery is criminal inhumane and closer to us than we realize Yet it rarely captures the attention of the media or the public This book exposes the hidden reality of modern slavery revealing how it continues to shape our world and why we cannot afford to look away
