Loves Executioner Other Tales Of Psychotherapy:

Love's Executioner Irvin D. Yalom, 2013-04-04 Love's Executioner offers us the humane and extraordinary insight of renowned psychiatrist Irvin D. Yalom into the lives of ten of his patients and through them into the minds of us all. Why was Saul tormented by three unopened letters from Stockholm? What made Thelma spend her whole life raking over a long past love affair? How did Carlos's macho fantasies help him deal with terminal cancer? In this engrossing book, Irvin Yalom gives detailed and deeply affecting accounts of his work with these and seven other patients. Deep down, all of them were suffering from the basic human anxieties: isolation, fear of death or freedom, a sense of the meaninglessness of life that none of us can escape completely. And yet, as the case histories make touchingly clear, it is only by facing such anxieties head on that we can hope to come to terms with them and develop. Throughout, Dr. Yalom remains refreshingly frank about his own errors and prejudices; his book provides a rare glimpse into the consulting room of a master therapist. Dr. Yalom demonstrates once again that in the right hands, the stuff of therapy has the interest of the richest and most inventive fiction. Eva Hoffman, New York Times. These remarkably moving and instructive tales of the psychiatric encounter bring the reader into novel territories of the mind and the landscape is truly unforgettable. Maggie Scarf. Love's Executioner is one of those rare books that suggests both the mystery and the poetry of the psychotherapeutic process. The best therapists are at least partly poets. With this riveting and beautifully written book, Irvin Yalom has joined their ranks. Erica Jong. Dr. Yalom offers a valuable insight into the delicate process of therapy. Sunday Telegraph. Dr. Yalom is unusually honest both with his patients and about himself. Anthony Storr. Yalom is a gifted storyteller and from the sound of these tales, a no less gifted psychotherapist. Los Angeles Times.

Love's Executioner Irvin D. Yalom, 1991. Contains eight case studies of people the author has treated, including a woman of 67 obsessively pining with love for her 32-year-old previous therapist and a woman of 19 stone who has emotional difficulties because of her weight problem. This title includes stories that reveal the diversity of human motivation. Love's Executioner Irvin D. Yalom, 2012-06-05. In his classic bestselling work, the masterful therapist and novelist Irvin Yalom describes his sometimes tragic, sometimes inspiring, and always absorbing encounters with patients. In this classic book, master psychotherapist Irvin D. Yalom uncovers the mysteries, frustrations, pathos, and humor at the heart of the therapeutic encounter. With insight and sympathy, Yalom not only gives us a rare and enthralling glimpse into the personal desires and motivations of ten of his patients but also tells his own story as he struggles to reconcile his all-too-human response with his sensibility as a psychiatrist. Love's Executioner has inspired hundreds of thousands of readers already and promises to inspire generations of readers to come. Loves Executioner and Other Tales of Psychotherapy Irvin D. Yalom, 1980.

Creatures of a Day Irvin D. Yalom, 2015-02-24. From the best-selling author of Love's Executioner, a penetrating exploration of life, death, and the search for meaning. What's Normal? Carol C. Donley, Sheryl Buckley, 2000. This is the companion text to The Tyranny of the Normal, an anthology. It examines the issues of abnormalities in mental health.

intelligence and sexual behaviour Both books are comprised of literary and fictional readings and commentary by health care professionals and medical ethicists Momma And The Meaning Of Life Irvin D. Yalom,2014-03-25 As the public grows disillusioned with therapeutic quick fixes people are looking for a deeper psychotherapeutic experience to make life more meaningful and satisfying What really happens in therapy What promises and perils does it hold for them No one writes about therapy or indeed the dilemmas of the human condition with more acuity style and heart than Irvin Yalom Here he combines the storytelling skills so widely praised in Love's Executioner with the wisdom of the compassionate and fully engaged psychotherapist In these six compelling tales of therapy Yalom introduces us to an unforgettable cast of characters Paula who faces death and stares it down Magnolia into whose ample lap Yalom longs to pour his own sorrows Irene who learns to seek out anger and plunge into it And there's Momma old fashioned ill tempered who drifts into Yalom's dreams and tramples through his thoughts At once wildly entertaining and deeply thoughtful Momma and the Meaning of Life is a work of rare insight and imagination Reflective Practice in Counselling and Psychotherapy Sofie Bager-Charleson,2010-06-24 A good understanding of reflective practice is essential for good practice in counselling and psychotherapy and is a criterion for accreditation with the British Association for Counselling and Psychotherapy This book takes students on a step by step journey through the history of reflective practice from its origins with Donald Schon through to ideas of knowledge and power and how the counsellor or psychotherapist deals with issues surrounding the self A central theme of the book is the concept of self reflection and what motivates a therapist to do an often difficult and sometimes emotionally complex job Theories of School Counseling for the 21st Century Colette T. Dollarhide,Matthew E.

Lemberger-Truelove,2018-10-18 Theories of School Counseling Delivery for the 21st Century provides a compilation of contemporary and cutting edge theories to inform the way school counselors practice the art and science of school counseling The text written by theory experts offers tremendous insight into each thereby helping readers to select a favorite theory and learn to incorporate theoretical flexibility in school counseling An Introduction To Counselling McLeod, John,2013-08-01 This bestseller provides a comprehensive introduction to the theory and practice of counselling and psychotherapy The Ladder: Life Lessons from Women Who Scaled the Heights & Dodged the Snakes Cathy

Newman,2024-02-29 FROM THE BESTSELLING AUTHOR OF BLOODY BRILLIANT WOMEN A emTimes Best Book of the Year Sartre and Psychoanalysis Betty Cannon,1991 Betty Cannon is the first to explore the implications of Sartrean philosophy for the Freudian psychoanalytic tradition Drawing upon Sartre's work as well as her own experiences as a practicing therapist she shows that Sartre was a fellow traveler who appreciated Freud's psychoanalytic achievements but rebelled against the determinism of his metatheory The mind Sartre argued cannot be reduced to a collection of drives and structures nor is it enslaved to its past as Freud's work suggested Sartre advocated an existentialist psychoanalysis based on human freedom and the self's ability to reshape its own meaning and value Through the Sartrean approach Cannon offers a resolution to the crisis in psychoanalytic metatheory created by the current emphasis on relational needs. By comparing Sartre with Freud and influential post Freudians like Melanie Klein, Otto Kernber, Margaret Mahler, D W Winnicott, Heinz Kohut, Harry Stack Sullivan and Jacques Lacan, she demonstrates why the Sartrean model transcends the limitations of traditional Freudian metatheory. In the process, she adds a new dimension to our understanding of Sartre and his place in twentieth century philosophy.

Salem Health Nancy A. Piotrowski, 2010. This comprehensive five volume set covers notable theories, people, social issues, life stages, the physiology and anatomy of the nervous system and various mental illnesses or conditions from publisher description.

Science Books & Films, 1989      The Israel Journal of Psychiatry and Related Sciences, 1995      Adults Abused as Children Peter Dale, 1999-02-08. This is a useful book that offers insights into outcomes for a sample of adults who sought help for the effects of their childhood abuse and the affect of the personal qualities and approaches of their therapists. It traverses some controversial ground and because it brings to light issues that are often on the back labelled too hard, should be compulsory reading for all the therapists working in this field.

International Social Work. This book is an extensive overview of practice based research on therapy for adults who were abused as children, physically, sexually or emotionally. Peter Dale looks in detail at the lessons to be learnt from people's experiences of therapy, a relief to find such a comprehensive, well researched book on the subject from a psychotherapeutic perspective. Its wider relevance is that we, society, therapists and service planners in particular, must learn from people who have been abused as children so that appropriate and supportive services can be set up.

Transformations. The PCSR Journal. I believe this book, based on Peter Dale's research into the experience of 53 clients, is of profound importance to practising counsellors, trainers and researchers. I recommend this carefully designed and executed piece of research to all BAC readers.

Mary Berry, Senior Lecturer in Counselling, University of Manchester. The author has created interesting and thought provoking arguments that provide a balanced analysis of abuse therapy in particular: Repression, Dissociation and False Memory Retrieval.

Clare Young, The Journal of Critical Psychology, Counselling and Psychotherapy. This enlightening book brings together the experiences of both clients and therapists who receive and provide help for the effects of childhood abuse. The book consolidates existing knowledge about child abuse and psychotherapeutic approaches to give an integrated account of counselling and therapy as it relates to adults abused as children.

Part One examines research in the fields of child abuse and psychotherapy, reviewing historically changing attitudes towards childhood abuse and the consequences of cultural context on approaches to treatment. Part Two reviews the testimonies of the therapeutic process from over 50 clients and therapists, including therapists who were themselves abused as children. These testimonies form a basis for the discussion of specific issues such as becoming a client, talking about abuse and what happens when things go wrong in therapy. Part Three tackles the controversy surrounding recovered memory and child abuse and assesses the implications for the future direction of counselling and therapy.

Case Studies in Emotion-focused Treatment of Depression Jeanne C. Watson, Rhonda N.

Goldman, Leslie S. Greenberg, 2007 In this book the authors offer a behind closed doors look at brief emotion focused therapy EFT in the treatment of depression capturing the state of the art of this important and widely used therapy Six in depth case studies three of which result in a good outcome and three in a poor outcome exemplify the principles of EFT and show how treatment progresses The six clients depicted vary widely in their background personalities and beliefs about the roots of their depression vividly demonstrating the utility of EFT across a range of circumstances Meticulous session by session descriptions of the therapy process include extensive dialogue and postsession evaluations using a variety of objective process measures

Personality Lewis R. Aiken, 1993 Jim Kobak's Kirkus Reviews, 1989

Older People and Their Needs Gianetta Corley, 2000 The final decades of the human lifespan are undeniably complex and challenging both for individuals themselves and for those who care for them With contributions from academic and health care professionals informal and family carers this book provides a rich resource of debate and practical ideas on how to prepare for dignity and quality of life during those years As well as addressing issues of physical independence mobility nutrition continence and dementia care the book also suggests innovative ideas for financial planning and maintaining family and community networks The identity and social roles of older people are explored and there is a particular focus on relationships and communication
