Loving And Learning:

Living Loving and Learning Leo F. Buscaglia,1985-10-12 LIVING LOVING AND LEARNING is a delightful collection of Dr Buscaglia's informative and amusing lectures which were delivered worldwide between 1970 and 1981. This inspirational treasure is for all those eager to accept the challenge of life and to profit from the wonder of love. An investment in life is an investment in change. When you are changing all the time you've got to continue to keep adjusting for change which means that you are going to be constantly facing new obstacles. That's the joy of living. And once you are involved in the process of becoming there is no stopping. You're doomed. You're gone. But what a fantastic journey. I think the loving person must return to spontaneity, return to touching each other, to holding each other, to smiling at each other, to thinking of each other, to caring about each other. Hugs are good, they feel nice, and if you don't believe it try it. We've got to learn to trust again, to believe again. Of course it's a risk, but everything is a risk. We need to begin to go beyond just being again. We've got to get in touch with being human and there's a difference.

Cross-Cultural Reflections on Chinese Aesthetics, Gender, Embodiment and Learning Eva Kit Wah Man, 2020-01-29 This book gathers research and writings that reflect on traditional and current global issues related to art and aesthetics, gender perspectives, body theories, knowledge and learning. It illustrates these core dimensions which are bringing together philosophy, tradition and cultural studies and laying the groundwork for comparative research and dialogues between aesthetics, Chinese philosophies, Western feminist studies and cross-cultural thought. Pursuing an interdisciplinary approach, the book also integrates philosophical enquiries with cultural anthropology and contextual studies. As implied in the title, the main methodologies are cross-cultural and comparative studies which touch on performances in art and aesthetics, social existence and education and show that philosophical enquiries, aesthetical representation and gender politics are simultaneously historical, living and contextual. The book gathers a wealth of cross-cultural reflections on philosophical aesthetics, gender existence and cultural traditions. The critical thinking within will benefit undergraduates, postgraduates and researchers in the area of comparative philosophies. It blends academic rigor with personal reflection which is a critical practice in feminist philosophy itself.
