

23 "I say to you, Love your enemies, those who hate you, and do good to those who persecute you, and pray for those who abuse you and despise you, 24 so that you may be children of your Father in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. 25 If you love those who love you, what reward will you have?
Do not even the tax collectors do the same?
26 If you greet only your brothers, what extra credit will you get? Do not even the Gentiles do the same?

Just War as Christian Discipleship Daniel M. Jr. Bell,2009-10-01 This provocative and timely primer on the just war tradition connects just war to the concrete practices and challenges of the Christian life Daniel Bell explains that the point is not simply to know the just war tradition but to live it even in the face of the tremendous difficulties associated with war He shows how just war practice if it is to be understood as a faithful form of Christian discipleship must be rooted in and shaped by the fundamental convictions and confessions of the faith The book includes a foreword by an Army chaplain who has served in Iraq and study questions for group use Politics, Justice, and War Joseph E. Capizzi,2015-05-14 The just war ethic emerges from an affirmative response to the basic question of whether people may sometimes permissibly intend to kill other people In Politics Justice and War Joseph E Capizzi clarifies the meaning and coherence of the just war approach to the use of force in the context of Christian ethics By reconnecting the just war ethic to an Augustinian political approach Capizzi illustrates that the just war ethic requires emphasis on the right intention or goal of peace as ordered justice With peace set as the goal of war the various criteria of the just war ethic gain their intelligibility and help provide practical guidance to all levels of society regarding when to go to war and how to strive to contain it So conceived the ethic places stringent limits on noncombatant or innocent killing in war helps make sense of contemporary technological and strategic challenges and opens up space for a critical and constructive dialogue with international law The Gothic North Sacheverell Sitwell,1929
