Lowest Rung Voices Of Australian Poverty:

The Lowest Rung Mark Peel, 2003-07-24 This 2003 book examines the impact of economic rationalism on members of the poorest parts of Australian society

Diversity in Australia's Music Dorottya Fabian, John Napier, 2018-10-30 This volume showcases academic research into the rich diversity of music in Australia from colonial times to the present Starting with an overview of developments during the past 50 years the contributions discuss Western and non western genres opera film dance choral chamber the history of music making in particular cosmopolitan and regional centres Canberra Brisbane the Hunter Valley Alice Springs old new and experimental compositions and a variety of performers and ensembles active at particular points in time In addition cultural tropes and music as social practice are also explored providing a rich tapestry of music and music making in the country The volume thus serves as a model for representing and approaching multicultural musical societies in an inclusive and comprehensive manner

Narratives of Vulnerability in Museums Meighen Katz, 2019-06-19 Narratives of Vulnerability in Museums is a study of the challenges museums face when they present narratives of instability uncertainty and fear in their exhibitions As a period of sustained societal and personal vulnerability the Great Depression remains a watershed era in American history It is an era when iconic visual culture of deprivation mixes in the popular imagination with groundbreaking government policy and has immense potential for museums but this is accompanied by significant challenges Analysing a range of case studies the book explores both the successes and obstacles involved in translating historical narratives of vulnerability to the exhibition floor Incorporating an innovative trans genre museological model the book draws connections between exhibitions of history art and technology as well as heritage sites focused on a single era Employing interpretations of housing preserved and reconstructed to discuss ideas of belonging and community the book also examines the power of the iconic national story and the struggle for local relevance through discussions on strikes and industrial action Finally it examines the use of fine art in history exhibitions to access the emotional aspects of historical experience The result is a volume that considers both how societies talk about less celebratory aspects of history but also the expectations placed on museums as interpreters of the public narrative and agents of change Narratives of Vulnerability in Museums makes a significant contribution to discourses of museum and heritage studies of interwar history of the social role of cultural institutions and to vulnerability and resilience studies As such it should be essential reading for scholars and students working in these disciplines as well as architecture cultural studies and human geography

Letters of the Catholic Poor Lindsey Earner-Byrne, 2017-01-11 A pioneering new history from below of Irish poverty told through the letters of the Catholic poor in Independent Ireland

Community and Local Governance in Australia Paul Smyth, Tim Reddel, Andrew Jones, 2005 This book examines the resurgence in Australia of locality based social policy concerned with the spatial dimensions of disadvantage after the political failures of the market oriented approach to regional reform The book proposes that these trends are leading to a new post competition policy regime in Australia that mirrors global policy trends Integrity and Historical Research Tony Gibbons, Emily Sutherland, 2012-03-12 Integrity and Historical Research offers a stimulating discussion about the ethical use of historical research material by writers and filmmakers What does using another's research with integrity really entail Who Cares? Eve Vincent, 2023-02-21 The twentieth century Australian welfare state made the bold promise to care for its citizens But since the 1990s social security has become increasingly conditional and punitive in its provision of this so called care Who Cares outlines the perspectives of people affected by two recent welfare measures offering an urgent account of the implications of these reforms Eve Vincent has interviewed people who were impacted by the controversial cashless debit card which limited discretionary spending as well as those looking after small children who are compulsory participants in the program ParentsNext Vincent challenges the very category of welfare recipient which defines people exclusively by their relationship to paid work And she asks who bears the burden of looking after vulnerable people once the welfare state's duty of care is displaced by surveillance and punishment Who Cares offers a new and deeply humane account of life on welfare today Australian Journal of Human Rights ,2004 Social Constructionism in Housing Research Keith Jacobs, Jim Kemeny, Tony Manzi, 2004 By stressing the importance of subjectivity and interpretation social constructionism offers a different conception of reality from the traditional approach to housing policy analysis This book provides an up to date review of the social constructionist perspective and considers its philosophical basis It discusses how social problems are constructed and in turn how this informs policy making It is divided into two parts The first section is theoretical and discusses the variety of conceptual approaches utilised within the constructionist paradigm The second part provides a number of empirically based case studies from the UK and Australia to illustrate the different methodologies that form the social constructionist corpus The book also evaluates both the criticisms that have been made against the social constructionist perspective and the strengths and weaknesses of constructionist methods It therefore contributes to the development of a future research agenda for social constructionist research in housing and urban policy Australian Book Review ,2003 Therapeutic Jurisprudence at the Conference of the International Association of Law & Mental Health in Padua, Italy ,2008 Australian Studies in Journalism ,2004 Australian Folklore ,2004 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2004 Social Policy and Discourse Analysis Greg Marston, 2004 Despite the fact that policy is increasingly led by the mass media social policy research has so far focused on variables and quantitative measurement rather than cultural meanings and moral welfare debates Taking a critical examination of social policy on public housing by way of illustration this book demonstrates how critical discourse theory can be used in applied research It shows how the theory and method of critical discourse analysis can be worked together in an intricate and accessible way Double Shift Patricia Grimshaw, John Murphy, Belinda Probert, 2005 Double shift looks at the history of working mothers and explores issues such as improved childcare and the vexed question of maternity leave American Book Publishing Record ,2004 Overland ,2006 Substance and

Substitution Suzanne Fraser, Kylie Valentine, 2008-03-27 Located between three powerful phenomena public health the law and social stigma methadone maintenance treatment attracts loyal advocates vociferous critics and innumerable engaged onlookers This book aims to examine the controversial approach to addiction providing in the process a unique approach to literature on illicit drugs

Education, Change and Society Raewyn Connell, 2007 Written in an engaging manner by Australia's leading sociology and education academics Education Change and Society is written to assist students in their understanding of how and by what mechanisms contemporary education in Australia operates The broader issues concerning Australian society are examined in the context of educational institutions and policies promoting critical reflection and facilitating in depth analysis
