Loyal She Remains A Pictorial History Of Ontario:

Loyal She Remains United Empire Loyalists' Association of Canada, 1984 Dad's Best Memories and Recollections
Charles J. Humber, 2016-01-20 DAD'S BEST MEMORIES AND RECOLLECTIONS is Chazz Humber's epitaph casting a very long and sentimental shadow across North America and beyond. This 230 page volume is his granite monument well polished. It lavishly records 125 of his best memories over a life span of nearly eighty years. The vignettes are serenaded with more than 400 illustrations. Those discovering this volume likely will find themselves wanting to record in their own sunset years their personal memories and recollections. And when they do they are apt to recall what it was like to live in their fluctuating world dominated by a variety of personalities and cascading events. Mr Humber vividly describes what it was like in 1945 to travel in a 1930 Model A Ford from Toronto to Boston. With lively enthusiasm he reports what it was like to live in post World War II Boston to cook a lobster for a former President of the United States or to sell a pair of elevator shoes to one of Hollywood's shortest celebrities or to shine the shoes of a Derby hatted father of a future President of the United States. It is not a remarkable achievement to reflect to recall or to have memories that are treasured. But to tell them with literary aplomb to recall the events that happened nearly seventy five years ago with utmost clarity is definitely an admirable achievement and should be cherished not only by the kin who follow Mr Humber but by those who might like to imitate what he has monumentally achieved in Dad's Best Memories and Recollections. Modest Hopes Don Loucks, Leslie Valpy, 2021-09-14 Celebrating Toronto's built heritage of row houses, semis and cottages and the people who lived in them. Despite their value as urban property Toronto's workers cottages are often characterized as being small, cramped, poorly built and in need of modernization or even demolition. But for the workers and their families who originally lived in them from the 1820s to the 1920s these houses were far from modest. Many had been driven off their ancestral farms or had left the crowded conditions of tenements in their home cities abroad. Once in Toronto many lived in unsanitary conditions in makeshift shantytowns or cramped shared houses in downtown neighbourhoods such as The Ward. To then move to a self contained cottage or rowhouse was the result of an unimaginably strong hope for the future and a commitment to family life. Through the stories of eight families who lived in these Modest Hopes authors Don Loucks and Leslie Valpy bring an important but forgotten part of the Toronto narrative to life. They illuminate the development of Toronto's working class neighbourhoods such as Leslieville, Corktown and others and explain the designs and architectural antecedents of these undervalued heritage properties. The History of Immigration and Racism in Canada Barrington Walker, 2008 This outstanding collection examines the complex and disturbing history of immigration and racism in Canada. Major themes include Native/non Native contact, migration and settlement in the nineteenth century, immigrant workers and radicalism, human rights internment during WWII and racism of the present day. The readings are divided into five cohesive sections: Natives and Newcomers in Early Canada, Space and Racialized Communities, Dangerous Others, Non Citizens and the State.
