Handbook of Research on Music Teaching and Learning Richard Colwell, Music Educators National Conference (U.S.), 1992

Policy and the Political Life of Music Education Patrick Schmidt, Richard Colwell, 2017-02-01

Policy and the Political Life of Music Education is the first book of its kind in the field of Music Education. It offers a far reaching and innovative outlook bringing together expert voices who provide a multifaceted and global set of insights into a critical arena for action today: policy. On one hand, the book helps the novice to make sense of what policy is, how it functions, and how it is discussed in various parts of the world. While on the other, it offers the experienced educator a set of critically written analyses that outline the state of the play of music education policy thinking. As policy participation remains largely underexplored in music education, the book helps to clarify to teachers how policy thinking does shape educational action and directly influences the nature, extent, and impact of our programs. The goal is to help readers understand the complexities of policy and to become better skilled in how to think, speak, and act in policy terms. The book provides new ways to understand and therefore imagine policy, approximating it to the lives of educators and highlighting its importance and impact. This is an essential read for anyone interested in change and how to better understand decision making within music and education. Finally, this book, while aimed at the growth of music educators' knowledge base regarding policy, also fosters open thinking regarding policy as a subject helping educators straddling arts and education to recognize that policy thinking can offer creative designs for educational change.

Music Deep and Wide in Older Adults C. Victor Fung, Hiromichi Mito, 2026-01-01

The purpose of this book is to address older adults' musical group activities and their relation to quality of life in Japan, situated on a crossroad between deep Eastern cultural traditions and broad contemporary innovations and Western influences. This is the first book that offers both insider and outsider perspectives on older adults' music participation in Japan. It is the result of a collaborative effort of a team of academics in Japan led by a Fulbright researcher from the United States who resided and worked on the project in Japan for six months. The collaboration continued for a few years beyond the Fulbright residency period. The book consists of 10 chapters in three parts. The first part includes an introductory chapter that sets the stage with strong cultural traditions in the contemporary ambience for older adults' music participation. Part two contains studies of seven diverse cases jointly conducted by native Japanese researchers and a researcher with Chinese American background. The majority of the researchers received training in the UK and the US. This allows each study with built-in perspectives from within and outside of Japan and with deep Asian, Japanese, and Western insights. These case studies are set in rural areas (Kojima, Nishio, and Uonuma), mid-size cities (Miyazaki and Sendai), world-class metropolises (Nagoya and Tokyo), and suburban areas (Odaka and Seto). Three of the case studies include non-musical groups in comparison with the musical groups. Part three contains two chapters. One is a synthesis of the case studies in the seven locations, identifying the main factors that make older adults' music participation positive and impactful to their quality of life. The final chapter includes implications relevant to older adults' music participation in support of their quality of life. Recommendations can be applicable far beyond the locales of the cases being studied      Ipsative Assessment G. Hughes, 2014-05-07 Ipsative assessment is a powerful new approach that provokes a radical rethink of the purposes and methods of assessment This book presents a case for partially replacing competitive assessment with ipsative assessment and it explores the possibilities and the challenges with research evidence and case studies      Global Trends and Local Issues International Employment Relations Association. Conference, 1999 Global trends and local issues proceedings of the Seventh Annual Conference of the International Employment Relations Association      Education and Society ,2006      Global Trends in Media Education Tony Lavender, Birgitte Tufte, Dafna Lemish, 2003 Over the last decades Media Education has gradually obtained an educational status in many countries throughout the world although few countries have actually incorporated this subject in their formal school curricula Where Media Education is taught today it is principally carried out using a relaxed pluralistic and a cross or multidisciplinary approach This book sets out to explore this new approach to the subject via chapters that are representative of ongoing work by leading Media Education researchers in nine different countries and from all five continents Media Education is continually evolving and the individual chapters indicate that the passion for the subject is global while the actual translations of practices and policies are very much local The book expands the debate about Media Education beyond the traditions and interests of one part of the world to encompass the needs of the rest      Benchmarks and Global Trends in Education Ebele Josephine Nwokolo Maduwesi, 2005      Global Trends in Communication Education and Research Kenneth W.
