Oradour-Sur-Glane Robert Hébras, 1994      In Another World Tom Pow, 2012-05-21 In one of the great defining moments in human history more people now live in cities than in rural areas and the effects of this depopulation and the plummeting birthrate are being felt keenly throughout Europe which has the fastest declining population in the world Tom Pow sets out to explore what this means in some of the most rapidly vanishing areas of Europe From Spain to Russia he uses the tools of his trade travelogue essay story and poem to make connections not only with what he encounters in numerous dying villages but to reflect on his own experiences of memory identity and loss In Another World is an open book not an argument but an invitation to remember to reflect and to engage with one of the most significant social issues affecting Europe today

Even Darkness Sings Thomas H Cook, 2018-10-02 Thomas Cook has always been drawn to dark places for the powerful emotions they evoke and for what we can learn from them These lessons are often unexpected and sometimes profoundly intimate but they are never straightforward With his wife and daughter Cook travels across the globe in search of darkness from Lourdes to Ghana from San Francisco to Verdun from the monumental mechanized horror of Auschwitz to the intimate personal grief of a shrine to dead infants in Kamukura Japan Along the way he reflects on what these sites may teach us not only about human history but about our own personal histories During the course of a lifetime of traveling to some of earth's most tragic locals from the leper colony on Molokai to ground zero at Hiroshima he finds not only darkness but a light that can illuminate the darkness within each of us Written in vivid prose this is at once a personal memoir of exploration both external and internal and a strangely heartening look at the radiance and optimism that may be found at the very heart of darkness

She Landed By Moonlight Carole Seymour-Jones, 2013-07-04 On the night of the 22 September 1943 Pearl Witherington a twenty nine year old British secretary and agent of the Special Operations Executive SOE was parachuted from a Halifax bomber into Occupied France Like Sebastian Faulks heroine Charlotte Gray Pearl had a dual mission to fight for her beloved broken France and to find her lost love Pearl's lover was a Parisian parfumeur turned soldier Henri Cornioley who had been taken prisoner while serving in the French Logistics Corps and subsequently escaped from his German POW camp Agent Pearl Witherington's wartime record is unique and heroic As the only woman agent in the history of SOEs in France to have run a network she became a fearless and legendary guerrilla leader organising arming and training 3 800 Resistance fighters Probably the greatest female organiser of armed maquisards in France the woman whom her young troops called Ma M re Pearl lit the fires of Resistance in Central France so that Churchill's famous order to set Europe ablaze which had brought SOE into being finally came to pass Pearl's story takes us from her harsh impoverished childhood in Paris to the lonely forests and farmhouses of the Loir et Cher where she would become a true warrior queen Shortly before Pearl's death in 2008 the Queen presented her with a CBE in Paris While male agents and Special Force Jedburghs received the DSO or Military Cross an ungrateful country had forgotten Pearl She had been offered a civilian decoration in 1945 which she refused saying There was nothing civil about what I did But what pleased her most was to receive her Parachute Wings for which she had waited over 60 years Two RAF officers travelled to her old people s home and she was finally able to pin the coveted wings on her lapel Pearl died in February 2008 aged 93      Teaching Global History Alan J. Singer,2011 Designed for pre service and practicing social studies teachers this text is a powerful resource for promoting thoughtful reflection and debate about what the global history curriculum should be and how to teach it EBL      Annihilation Thomas Zeiler,2011 From 1937 to 1945 the world witnessed a succession of savage military policies innovations and actions on the field in the water and in the skies that resulted in the butchery of over fifty million people The military history of the Second World War involves heroism and evil effective and hopeless strategies bold and pointless operations calculation and luck politics and diplomacy and production and attrition This study incorporates recent scholarship on the military history of the Second World War to examine both chronologically and in a comprehensive geographic way the most destructive event in recorded human history Annihilation argues that World War II evolved into a war of annihilation a total war that engulfed militaries and civilians alike and spared no country either destruction or blame for the carnage The book questions the adopted intention of the good war thesis by wielding the strategy of annihilation on all sides as an architectural framework Readers will find global coverage linking together all theaters of the conflict in a narrative that advances from the beginning to end of the war This is the first study of the World War II that allows instructors to assign chapters of the book according to time periods or by place      Bibliographie nationale française ,1996      □□□□□□□□□□□□□□□□ ,2008      Free France ,1944
