Sacred Fire Kalonymus Kalmish Shapira,2002-08-22 Sacred Fire Torah from the Years of Fury 1939-1942 consists of commentaries on each weekly Torah portion. It also includes a number of lengthy sermons delivered on the major Jewish Festivals as well as a few discourses alluding to people loved and lost Because writing is not permitted on the Sabbath these words of Torah were transcribed from memory after the Sabbath or festival had ended Although the pages of Sacred Fire are not stained with the names of its author s tormentors there are numerous references to historical events through which parallels can be drawn Rabbi Shapira often refers for example to the binding of Isaac and the martyrdom of Rabbi Akiba Sacred Fire forms a religious spiritual response to the Holocaust that speaks from the heart of the darkness In doing so it may well form the basis for what could one day become Judaism s formal liturgical response to the events that occurred during those years of fury

Christine Helmer,Christof Landmesser,2004-06-03 One Scripture or Many proposes a novel understanding of canon that reaches beyond the text to the reality of tradition This new approach to biblical theology takes up major questions concerning the unity of the canon Its thesis is bold canon is both text and tradition As text the canon is the product of a history of formation its unity is ascribed by subsequent generations interpreting the text As tradition its fundamental openness to diverse interpretations is the function of a subject behind the text that holds together the tradition s unity Yet open endedness does not mean an absence of determinacy Hermeneutical theological and philosophical parameters are given in order to maintain a unity at one level that does not exist between ideas conflicting on another level These parameters are constituted through the relationship between text reality and experience On the one hand these parameters are embedded in the text On the other hand they are inextricably linked to reality because they themselves reflect experiences of that reality The interdisciplinary approach in this book draws on scholarship in the Hebrew Bible the Dead Sea Scrolls the New Testament philosophy and theology Both Jewish and Christian scholars conclude that the search for the canon is an open ended process of interpretation Questions of the canon s unity find their niche in a new concept of biblical theology that presupposes the theological and philosophical relevance of biblical texts As conceived in religious categories experience and reality are themes already available in scripture Whether one or many scripture addresses these questions for our time Translating the Classics of Judaism Jacob Neusner,1989 The Secret Diary of Ben Zoma John W. McGinley,2008 So Think about this Once this foreigner is brought into the House of Israel albeit a foreigner who emerged from the House of Israel and then comes to rule it the House of Israel itself ended up becoming in fact a collective apostate alienated from its burning living center In the following I acknowledge the paradox involved in what I am saying given what is said in the Gemaric commentaries about Akher But again think it through What would it mean to be an apostate from an institution which itself has apostatized In this sense Elisha ben Abbuyah becomes the model for a grand teshuvah whose contours as we shall see are radically paradoxical RETURN O BACKSLIDING CHILDREN Today to pick up one of those figures used in Hagigah s attempt to give cautious approval of such rehabilitation for Elisha ben Abbuyah Judaism is a shell whose kernel has virtually disappeared If nothing changes nothing changes Judaism will implode in upon itself and disappear If you are able to see the mortal danger into which Judaism has strayed you will be able to garner the imagination to read as though for the very first time the forthcoming thrice articulated verse and commentary It was first stated by Hashem to Akher It was then twice repeated by Akher to Meir You need to turn the telescope around to understand its true import Think again of the logic entailed by the apostate who apostatizes from an apostatizing Institution Just how long will it take for you to get it Till it s too late RETURN O BACKSLIDING CHILDREN whispering for proper effect except for Akher It is not Akher who needs to return The Religious Study of Judaism Jacob Neusner,1988-12-07 In this volume Dr Neusner explores the history of religious ideas and writings focusing first on the idea of history and second on the conception of a foundation document comprising the Pentateuch and the Mishnah He then moves on to an interpretation of the implications for the history of Judaism of the distinctive and particular character of an important document Sifra a sustained address to the book of Leviticus by sages of the fourth or fifth century BContents Part I The Idea of History in Formative Judaism Part II The Constitution of the Judaism of the Dual Torah Part III Ethics or Ontology in Formative Judaism Part IV From Text to Matrix in the Case of Sifra Part V The University as Locus for Studying the Formative Age of Judaism Mekhilta According to Rabbi Ishmael: Amalek, Bahodesh, Neziqin, Kaspa and Shabbata ,1988
