L. Noll, Brooks Schramm, 2010-06-30 Twenty three colleagues friends and former students of Richard Nelson honor him by contributing essays to this volume Nelson is the former Kraft Professor of Biblical Studies at Lutheran Theological Seminary in Gettysburg PA and current W J A Power Professor of Biblical Hebrew and Old Testament Interpretation as well as Associate Dean for Academic Affairs at Perkins School of Theology Southern Methodist University Dallas He is the author of numerous books commentaries and articles Raising Up a Faithful Exegete centers around topics of particular interest to Prof Nelson especially Deuteronomy the Former Prophets priestly traditions social interactions and theology In fact this book could be seen as a one volume summation of current thinking on Deuteronomy the

Former Prophets Deuteronomism and Biblical Theology disguised as a Festschrift For eleven years I had the distinct pleasure and honor of having Richard Nelson as a senior faculty colleague He has served as a fine model of what it means to be a dynamic and innovative teacher an insightful mentor a world class scholar a supportive friend a dedicated leader in the church and a person who takes sheer delight in all facets of his calling Richard P Carlson Lutheran Theological Seminary Gettysburg PA Rich Nelson is a truly rare breed of man He is not only a passionate and respected scholar thoroughly trained and representative of historical critical approaches to the Hebrew Bible But he is also open and interested in the whole spectrum of different ways in which the Bible is read and understood both in the church and the academy He is a remarkable role model Roy L Heller Perkins School of Theology Southern Methodist University Dallas Rich Nelson was one of the best graduate students I ever taught In a seemingly effortless manner he did basic significant research that provided the grounds for a major but to that point generally undeveloped reading of the Deuteronomistic History Out of that early study and his later scholarly work he has rightly become one of our leading interpreters of Deuteronomy and the history that evolved out of its circle Patrick D Miller Jr Princeton Theological Seminary

Struggling with God Mark McEntire, 2008 This textbook focuses primarily on the content and structure of the Pentateuch The process which produced the Pentateuch and the long record of its use within Judaism and Christianity are intricate and fascinating stories but it is the final forms of these five books to which we have the most reliable access Discussions of historical and theological issues are included when they serve to illustrate the content and structure of the text After an opening chapter which introduces the major issues in the study of the Pentateuch including a summary of the history of scholarship a full chapter engages each of the five books Attention to literary shape texture and artistry are at the forefront of the discussion while historical and theological discussions are included where they are most informative The book also includes many lists of textual data in each chapter Most of these provide a view of features which serve to connect and draw together the diverse literature of the Pentateuch They are intended to serve as starting points for active textual research in a classroom setting The material in this book is classroom tested and was even developed during successive opportunities to teach courses in the Pentateuch Publisher

God in the Dock Carleen Mandolfo, 2003-01-01 This book examines the dialogic structure of biblical psalms of lament Observations about voicing are developed out of the work of Mikhail Bakhtin and are utilized to reevaluate the theological expression of lament psalms as well as components of Israel's rhetorical relationship with its deity What emerges is a theology that gives voice to the tension that existed between faith in a god who practices flawless hesed or covenantal loyalty and the experience of God's failure to uphold his side of the bargain

Puzzling Out the Past Marilyn J. Lundberg, Steven Fine, Wayne T. Pitard, 2012-05-03 Bruce Zuckerman has transformed the way we look at ancient Semitic inscriptions Through his efforts the most important inscriptions of biblical times have been reread and the history of the biblical and Second Temple periods reimagined He has made contributions to the fields of biblical studies and modern Judaism and in founding Maarav A Journal for the Study of the Northwest Semitic Languages and Literatures has made the research of many scholars available to the scholarly community The series of articles included here honor his many contributions through discussions of a wide variety of inscriptional materials Biblical texts archaeology lexicography and teaching methodology Included in the volume is a republication of his path breaking exhibition catalogue Puzzling Out the Past Opening the Bible Antony Campbell, 2014-08-30 When Tony Campbell aged 75 asked the Council of Jesuit Theological College for Emeritus status and retirement from JTC both were granted most graciously along with a testimonial document which said in part His teaching has combined evocation and provocation in the best sense of those terms He has mentored research students with scholarly exactitude and personal care He has published books of the highest scholarly quality of engaging readability and of passionate conviction When we at ATF were considering asking him for a volume of Collected Works or Selected Writings we were well aware that published books of the highest scholarly quality were likely to be found on the shelves of libraries and of specialised academics but not with students and others generally interested There may be a dozen or more of Tony s books on the list from Amazon com booksellers along with another two or three that are not listed there But most are heavy duty specialist works not easily accessible even to the educated public We were equally well aware that there was a surprising number of essays and articles scattered in journals and proceedings of conferences that were because of the scattering often just as inaccessible We thought that a collection of these in a single volume would be of great value to those interested In the Introduction to this volume Father Campbell has gone into some detail about the contents Suffice for us to say that Job and the issues associated with suffering concern us all that the interplay of history and narrative is a constant in the understanding of much biblical text and that the nature of the Bible and its role in our lives is a major concern for most thinking Christians While Father Campbell s focus is on the Older Testament pondering what he looks at throws light on much of the Newer Testament as well The writings Tony Campbell has pulled together in this single volume address significant issues within the readable length of an article or a talk Addressed originally to thinking people we at ATF believe they are likely to be of interest to a wide audience Writings and Speech in Israelite and Ancient Near Eastern Prophecy Ehud Ben Zvi, Michael H. Floyd, 2000 The Responsive Self Susan Niditch, 2015-09-01 Works created in the period from the Babylonian conquest of Judea through the takeover and rule of Judea and Samaria by imperial Persia reveal a profound interest in the religious responses of individuals and an intimate engagement with the nature of personal experience Using the rich and varied body of literature preserved in the Hebrew Bible Susan Niditch examines ways in which followers of Yahweh participating in long standing traditions are shown to privatize and personalize religion Their experiences remain relevant to many of the questions we still ask today Why do bad things happen to good people Does God hear me when I call out in trouble How do I define myself Do I have a personal relationship with a divine being How do I cope with chaos and make sense of my experience What roles do material objects and private practices play within my religious life These questions deeply engaged the ancient writers of the Bible and they continue to intrigue contemporary people who try to find meaning in life and to make sense of the world The Responsive Self studies a variety of phenomena including the use of first person speech seemingly autobiographic forms and orientations the emphasis on individual responsibility for sin interest in the emotional dimensions of biblical characters and descriptions of self imposed ritual This set of interests lends itself to exciting approaches in the contemporary study of religion including the concept of lived religion and involves understanding and describing what people actually do and believe in cultures of religion
