Ordinary Time Cycles In Marriage Faith And Renewal:

Ordinary Time Nancy Mairs, 1993 In Ordinary Time Nancy Mairs brings her trademark directness to the subject of religion Themes that bring out piety and sentimentality in many writers Mairs treats with all her usual outspokenness candor and courage Mairs is a passionate questioner and storyteller and above all Ordinary Time is writing firmly rooted in the messy realities and questions the ordinary time of one woman's life Mairs's marriage is in many ways at the center of the book My spirit has been schooled in wedlock and she draws a portrait of her life with her husband that is detailed in a way rarely seen in personal writing She shows us moments of marital despair in Here Grace for instance but also the details of the way toward clarity and reconciliation Mairs writes with wit exactitude and intelligence about her conversion from a devout New England Protestant teenager a bit mystically inclined to an unorthodox activist Catholic in the Southwest about her commitment to feminism two years later and about her uneasy dual identity as Catholic and feminist about run ins with monomaniacal priests about her husband's cancer and her own disease about women and the Church about charity and the body about raising children about understanding God's will and imagining death Sex, Love, and Families Julie Hanlon Rubio, Jason Edward King, 2020-03-30 2021 Association of Catholic Publishers first place award in theology 2021 Catholic Media Association Award first place award in marriage and family living Six years into the papacy of Pope Francis Catholics are still figuring out how to respond to his image of the church as a field hospital a church that goes into the streets rather than remaining locked up behind closed doors Marriage and family are primary sites of the field hospital called to meet people's need for healing and accompaniment with compassion and love The authors of this collection all lay a mix of single and married traditional and progressive Catholics take up this work They offer practical wisdom from and critical engagement with the Catholic tradition but avoid rehashing decades old theological debates Instead their essays engage with and respond to realities shaping contemporary family life like religious pluralism technology migration racism sex and gender incarceration consumerism and the call to holiness The result is a collection that envisions ways that families can be places of healing and love in and for the world The Disabled God Nancy L. Eiesland, 1994-09-01 Draws on themes of the disability rights movement to identify people with disabilities as members of a socially disadvantaged minority group rather than as individuals who need to adjust Highlights the hidden history of people with disabilities in church and society Proclaiming the emancipatory presence of the disabled God the author maintains the vital importance of the relationship between Christology and social change Eiesland contends that in the Eucharist Christians encounter the disabled God and may participate in new imaginations of wholeness and new embodiments of justice A Gentler God Doug Frank, 2020-07-09 What is God like Is he the lofty Almighty of conservative religion with power to stop heartbreakingly human holocausts and deadly natural disasters but who inexplicably declines to do so Is he the callous Judge offering the faithful a place in his heaven while summarily casting the faithless into everlasting hell Is he the vain King on his throne requiring us to stroke his ego by praising him unceasingly for his awesome power If this is the God we have been taught it is no wonder that many people have come to realize that they do not like let alone trust him The simple certainties of their childhood no longer make sense But the equally assured assertions of today s atheists also leave them cold They want a personal connection with God an honest faith that grows out of their own felt truth and touches them at the deepest levels of their being This book points the way It dismantles the angry punitive God of traditional Protestantism and beckons us toward a kinder more welcoming God This God does not ask us to grit our teeth and try our best to believe Instead this God meets us in our humanity inviting our hearts to respond in genuine trust and love Seeds of the Spirit Richard H. Bell,Barbara L. Battin,1995-01-01 This book brings together a selection of classic spiritual writings from the twentieth century s most inspirational authors Arranged thematically this book is ideal for use as a spiritual primer for laity and clergy alike and is also helpful for sermon preparation The topics include alienation and loneliness holiness and spirituality justice and kindness purity of heart humility and renunciation spiritual presence and incarnation and worship gratitude and joy Challenging and engaging these writings will invite us to explore and deepen our sense of the sacred in our everyday lives Selections are from the work of Karl Barth Daniel Berrigan Dietrich Bonhoeffer Martin Buber Dorothy Day Matthew Fox Gustavo Gutierrez Dag Hammarskjold Vaclav Havel Abraham Heschel Martin Luther King Jr Madeleine L Engle C S Lewis Thomas Merton Mother Teresa of Calcutta Henri Nouwen Brother Roger of Taize Dorothee Soelle Simone Weil and many others A short biography of each writer is included Illness, Literature, and Care Robert Leigh Davis,2026-01-08 An intervention into contemporary debates on care by positioning it as a matter of attunement or resonance through an examination of American literature Disability and Mothering Cynthia Lewiecki-Wilson,Jen Cellio-Miller,2011-09-14 Editors Lewiecki Wilson and Cellio have put together the first book to focus on the intersecting spaces both cultural and personal of disability and mothering Derived from the Latin for threshold the word liminal calls attention to the book s focus on the transitional moments and spaces where the personal and social inside and outside self and other converge The volume features twenty one previously unpublished essays by new as well as established scholars and community activists Contributors some of whom are themselves disabled or mothers of children with disabilities present moving personal accounts and accessible scholarship grounded in historical study experiential and retrospective analysis interviews social research and feminist and disability studies theories In their introduction the editors survey the theoretical frameworks of feminism and disability studies locating the points of overlap crucial to a study of disability and mothering Organized in five sections the book engages questions about reproductive technologies diagnoses and cultural scripts the ability to rewrite narratives of mothering and disability political activism and the tensions formed by the overlapping identities of race class nation and disability The essays speak to a broad audience from undergraduate and graduate students in women s studies and disability studies to therapeutic and health care professionals to anyone grappling with issues such as genetic testing and counseling raising a child with a disability or being disabled and contemplating starting a family     Racechanges Susan Gubar,1997 When the actor Ted Danson appeared in blackface at a 1993 Friars Club roast he ignited a firestorm of protest that landed him on the front pages of the newspapers rebuked by everyone from talk show host Montel Williams to New York City's then mayor David Dinkins Danson's use of blackface was shocking but was the furious pitch of the response a triumphant indication of how far society has progressed since the days when blackface performers were the toast of vaudeville or was it also an uncomfortable reminder of how deep the chasm still is separating black and white America In Racechanges White Skin Black Face in American Culture Susan Gubar who fundamentally changed the way we think about women's literature as co author of the acclaimed The Madwoman in the Attic turns her attention to the incendiary issue of race Through a far reaching exploration of the long overlooked legacy of minstrelsy cross racial impersonations or racechanges throughout modern American film fiction poetry painting photography and journalism she documents the indebtedness of mainstream artists to African American culture and explores the deeply conflicted psychology of white guilt The fascinating racechanges Gubar discusses include whites posing as blacks and blacks passing for white blackface on white actors in The Jazz Singer Birth of a Nation and other movies as well as on the faces of black stage entertainers African American deployment of racechange imagery during the Harlem Renaissance including the poetry of Anne Spencer the black and white prints of Richard Bruce Nugent and the early work of Zora Neale Hurston white poets and novelists from Vachel Lindsay and Gertrude Stein to John Berryman and William Faulkner writing as if they were black white artists and writers fascinated by hypersexualized stereotypes of black men and nightmares and visions of the racechanged baby Gubar shows that unlike African Americans who often are forced to adopt white masks to gain their rights white people have chosen racial masquerades which range from mockery and mimicry to an evolving emphasis on inter racial mutuality and mutability Drawing on a stunning array of illustrations including paintings film stills computer graphics and even magazine morphings Racechanges sheds new light on the persistent pervasiveness of racism and exciting aesthetic possibilities for lessening the distance between blacks and whites
