Oregon Desert:

The Oregon Desert Edwin Russell Jackman, Reub A. Long, 1964 Historical biographical and geological information and practical desert folk lore on a 24 000 square mile area of the Pacific Northwest      Netting the Sun Melvin R. Adams, 2001

Carefully woven Netting the Sun offers a diversity of natural and human stories from a landscape seemingly empty and forlorn to passing casual travelers This surprising interpretation of south central Oregon s botany geology climate wildlife ethnography and history reveals what a truly special place the high desert is Born in the sagebrush community of Lakeview in 1941 the author moved on following high school graduation But as with many native sons and daughters from America s out of the way places the urge to return to his roots proved irresistible in middle age I endeavored to write this collection about the Oregon desert because of my childhood there Adams writes but also because it is a place of startling mystery subdued danger and beauty      Walking the High Desert Ellen Waterston, 2020-06-22 Former high desert rancher Ellen

Waterston writes of a wild essentially roadless starkly beautiful part of the American West Following the recently created 750 mile Oregon Desert Trail she embarks on a creative and inquisitive exploration introducing readers to a trusting naïve earnest stubbly grumpy old man of a desert that is grappling with issues at the forefront of national if not global concern public land use grazing rights for livestock protection of sacred Indigenous ground water rights and protection of habitat for endangered species Blending travel writing with memoir and history Waterston profiles a wide range of people who call the high desert home and offers fresh perspectives on nationally reported regional conflicts such as the Malheur Wildlife Refuge occupation Walking the High Desert invites readers wherever they may be to consider their own beliefs identities and surroundings through the optic of the high desert of southeastern Oregon      Oregon Desert Guide Andy Kerr, 2000 It is some of the wildest and most remote land left in Oregon and the object of a 40 year love affair for conservationist Andy Kerr In 70 hikes through snow capped mountain ranges deep river canyons sagebrush covered flats dry lake playas moonlike lava fields and juniper covered hillsides he will seduce you too with the spare and mysterious beauty of the desert Kerr explains how you can help protect these lands forever      Steens Mountain in Oregon's High Desert Country Edwin Russell

Jackman, John Scharff, 1967-11 Distributed by the University of Nebraska Press for Caxton Press Award winning photography and lithography sets this coffee table book apart from others of its type      The Sagebrush Curtain Melvin Adams, 2019-08-08

This book contains a diversity of natural and human stories about the southeast quarter of Oregon state an area seemingly empty and barren to many people driving through it This surprising view of the region features the botany geology wildlife and history of the area wrapped in a memoir of the author s youth spent there Born in the sagebrush community of Lakeview in 1941 the author moved on following high school graduation But as with many native sons and daughters from out of the way places the urge to return to his roots proved irresistible I endeavored to write this collection about the Oregon desert because of my childhood there says Adams but also because it is a place of startling mystery subdued danger and beauty
