Hawaii Orchid Journal, 1992 The Various Contrivances by which Orchids are Fertilized by Insects Charles Darwin, 1889 Orchids Mary Hirose, 2018-04-13 Beautiful and alluring orchids are very special indeed They can live for decades and because of specialized pollination need insects Like so many other plants those pesky insects are our survival and that of the planet Take heart you are here and can do much today This beautiful journal and or planner can be steadfast by your side as you get it done xo Orchid Biology VIII T. Kull, J. Arditti, 2013-03-14 Note Not long after publication of Orchid Biology Reviews and Perspectives OB volume VII my co editor Dr Alec M Pridgeon informed me that the pressure of other duties especially the editing of Genera Orchidacearum GO will make it impossible for him to continue as co editor and eventually editor of the series Alec is an excellent orchid scientist and editor I was sorry to that he had to leave OB but glad that GO will be in his able hands The first volume of GO attests to his considerable abilities and I wish him much success in the future Editors of orchid publications are not the most common of species to use a botanical analogy and finding a replacement for Alec was not easy However I was fortunate that Dr Tiiu Kull agreed to become my co editor and eventually take over the series As is obvious from the Contributors section Dr Kull has extensive experience as both writer and editor My interactions with her while editing this volume have convinced me she is an excellent choice Scientifically she brings to OB an appreciation and understanding of northern terrestrial orchids a group which has not received as much attention as it deserves Another addition to OB is Dr Tim Wing Yam who agreed to become an associate editor Tim who holds a position at the Singapore Botanic Gardens will provide expertise on seed germination hybridization tissue culture species and conservation Charles Darwin's Works: The various contrivances by which orchids are fertilised by insects
