Mything in Action Don Lago, 2006 There are times when nations are no longer sure of what they are and what their purpose is and for America 2004 was such a time For 200 years America was the hope and role model of the democratic world but now America is failing in this role The national myths the stories heroes self images and social values that have guided America from the beginning are now misleading and failing us Our heroic self image tricked us into disasters in Vietnam and Iraq Our frontier experience has left us refusing to face environmental limits Our individualistic values have left us unwilling to care about one another as a people Basic questions of national identity ran strong in the 2004 presidential campaign Mything in Action uses the campaign to explore America s guiding myths in action in the most iconic places in the American imagination Lexington and Concord on the 4th of July Hollywood Beverly Hills the Grand Canyon Las Vegas a Mark Twain riverboat town a Wild West town and John Wayne s hometown Mything in Action is a unique literary exploration of American history culture and politics offering a deeper analysis of America s difficulties than the usual partisan polemics

Time Out Mary Allen Sochet, 2012-11-11 What happens when an Irish girl from the North Country meets a Jewish guy from the Bronx He has poured half a box of detergent into a washing machine at their NYC apartment Laundry Room When she walks in to do her wash the floor is covered with bubbles She tells him You ve put way too much soap in And their conversation continues for 47 years Love is sprinkled with small incidents petty fights heartache loss and regret Poet Mary Allen Sochet reaches into her own story to take us through the times before and after her husband s death After fifty years with someone can you possibly start all over again Does loss overshadow all that came before Time Out shows us that even the most plain ordinary moments can hold as much importance as the milestones Loss does not mark the end of the story
