Organization Governance In Higher Education Ashe Reader Series:

ASHE Reader on Organization and Governance in Higher Education Marvin W. Peterson, 1989 Organization & Governance in Higher Education M. Christopher Brown, 2000 Comprises a collection of 40 readings to aid in understanding the multiple nuances of how colleges or postsecondary educational institutions are organized governed and administered Areas addressed are classic organization theory traditional administrative and governance models campus climate an

ASHE Reader in Organization and Governance in Higher Education Robert Birnbaum, 1984 Organization and Governance in Higher Education Marvin W. Peterson, Ellen Earle Chaffee, Theodore H. White, 1991 Articles emphasize conceptual topics rather than practical issues or implications Divided into three sections Organization Theory and Models Governance and Management Processes and Leadership Perspectives Organization and Governance in Higher Education Jason Lane, Eboni Zamani-Gallaher, 2010 Organization and Governance in Higher Education is one of the primary teaching and research references in the study and practice of post secondary education Research in higher education has provided new insights and recommendations for the management of postsecondary institutions In addition to maintaining the strength and integrity of prior readers by continuing the coverage of classical theories and traditional models the Fifth Edition provides updated reading to broaden the scope of the reader New selections include current perspective on campus governance and institutional change Because of the complex nature of the postsecondary institution this reader creates eight subject area lenses Each lens allows the reader to engage the specific paradigms and phenomena related to that aspect of higher education c From publisher s description ASHE Reader on Organization and Governance in Higher Education

Marvin W. Peterson, 1986 Reconstructing Policy in Higher Education Elizabeth J. Allan, Susan Iverson, Rebecca Ropers-Huilman, 2009-10-16 Written for Higher Education Masters and PhD programs this landmark textbook joins the theory of feminist post structuralism with research methods for the purpose of policy analysis in Higher Education It showcases the different methods that can be applied to a range of topics in Higher Education policy and policy development Reconstructing Policy in Higher Education highlights the work of accomplished and award winning scholars and provides an in depth examination of theoretical frameworks and concrete examples of how feminist post structuralism effectively informs research methods and can serve as a vital tool for policy makers and analysts Higher Education in the United States James J. F. Forest, Kevin Kinser, 2002-06-21 Surveys the changing landscape of American higher education from academic freedom to virtual universities from campus crime to Pell Grants from the Student Privacy Act to student diversity In the years following World War II college and university enrollment doubled students revolted faculty unionized and community colleges evolved Tuition and technology soared as did the number of first generation minority and women students These changes radically transformed the American system of postsecondary education Today that system is in trouble Its aging professoriate prepares for retirement but low academic salaries can no longer attract the best minds to replace them A flood of corporate dollars funds commercial research but money for basic research the seedbed of American scientific preeminence has dried up Colleges and universities also face heated competition with for profit education providers for students faculty and external financial support along with the costs of providing remedial education to growing numbers of students who are unprepared for postsecondary education Higher Education in the United States provides a comprehensive analysis of these issues and others that scholars and practitioners of higher education study discuss and grapple with on a daily basis

Resources in Education, 1987 Coming of Age Francesca Purcell, 2005-07-14 In view of the increasing number of Third World countries considering the establishment of women s colleges to meet the demand for the higher education of women presenting a case study of two key women s colleges in the Philippines Within the context of global national and local changes since the fall of Ferdinand Marcos in 1986 academic and administrative leaders at two prestigious women s colleges candidly discuss how their respective institutions adapted to their environments and how the colleges will fare in the future Preferences for large coeducational institutions the emergence of less expensive tertiary institutions and the downward spiral of a weak national economy combined to destabilized the enrollment base of these colleges Factors unique to the Philippines including an increasing number of female overseas contract workers struggles with national language preferences and the growth of feminism also affected the colleges In response the colleges expanded their curricula chose high profile presidents focused on faculty development and acquired technology Decision markers at these colleges will have to continue in their efforts at solidifying their positions in the Philippine higher education system The book that women s colleges worldwide must articulate their unique purposes and collaborate with other institutions to strengthen their organizations Michigan Journal of Community Service Learning, 2003 Faculty Governance in Higher Education George Thornton Fitzelle, 1998 ASHE Reader on Finance in Higher Education Larry L. Leslie, Richard E.

Anderson, 1990 Institutional Culture and the Development of Socially Responsible Leadership Among Male College Undergraduates Heidi Sue Harlander, 1998 Legitimacy in the Academic Presidency Rita Bornstein, 2003-09-30 Annotation Bornstein explains why a president can neither advance an agenda nor operate successfully without legitimacy An Analysis of Transformational Leadership Attributes and Leadership Development in Two Year Colleges Patricia B. Frohrib, 2002 Academic Departments Barbara E. Walvoord, 2000 A literature review the experiences of the authors and the results of the Project To Improve and Reward Teaching PIRT at the University of Cincinnati Ohio are used to derive suggestions for change in academic departments A qualitative study of change in eight PIRT departments has provided data to support the suggestions Assessing the pressures for change is a first step for practitioners who are planning change in an academic department Seeking the greatest possible understanding of how departments work and how departmental structures and cultures suggest avenues for change is a necessary second step Implementing change strategies adapted to the local situation must follow A final step is considering what the department should be Departments in the future must build on their own particular qualities structures and cultures to fulfill their crucial roles The chapters are 1 Introduction 2 Assessing the Pressures for Departmental Change 3 Examining Values in the Department 4 The Discipline and the Department 5 Departmental Relations with Central Administration 6 Departmental Organization Decision Making and Interaction 7 Departmental Leadership 8 Departmental Work Faculty Roles and Rewards and 8 Conclusions Departmental Change An appendix summarizes departmental characteristics and avenues for change Contains 1 table and 278 references SLD Character Development and Intercollegiate Athletics Ernest Marcellus Fingers,2005 Teaching Alone, Teaching Together James L. Bess,2000-05-05 A series of scholars address the current organizational methodology of teaching and discuss how team teaching can match the different talents of faculty members with the differentiated tasks of teaching Curriculum in Transition Clifton Conrad,Jennifer Grant Haworth,1990
