Making Of Channel 4

Bob Franklin

Making Of Channel 4:

Federal Register ,1958 Public Service Broadcasting Great Britain. Parliament. House of Lords. Select Committee on Communications,2009 This report responds to the current crisis in public service broadcasting particularly in the advertiser funded television sector This has been caused by three factors 1 the move from analogue to digital broadcasting means that established forms of support are losing value 2 viewers are increasingly taking advantage of technological developments that provide alternatives to conventional broadcasting such as the internet and the many commercial channels 3 the speed and severity of the current economic recession The Committee believes that the commercially funded public broadcasters ITV Channel Four Five and BSkyB should continue to provide an alternative to the BBC which should not become an even more dominant provider of public service programming Market forces will not resolve the crisis and intervention is justified to ensure sufficient public service provision that the market will nor provide free for the public There is a need for financial clarity on the financial position of all the public service broadcasters and Channel Four s position should be independently reviewed A partnership between Channel 4 and BBC Worldwide rather than a full merger would be a quicker means of making extra resources available to Channel 4 The BBC s other partnership proposals are welcomed An element of contestable funding should be introduced such funding to come from a the underspend on the digital switchover b continuance of funding from the licence fee after 2012 when the switchover programme ends c the use of at least part of analogue spectrum revenue after 2012 Ultimately part of the licence fee could be used to support public service content provision outside the BBC House documents ,1889 Television Policy Bob Franklin,2019-07-30 Television Policy offers a unique and authoritative account of the major developments in television programming and policy since 1976 by collecting in a single volume the MacTaggart lectures delivered at the Edinburgh International Television Festival across the last quarter of a century The MacTaggart lecturers include the most celebrated and distinguished programme makers producers performers playwrights policymakers and senior media executives across all sectors of broadcasting They include Greg Dyke John Humphrys John McGrath Marcel Orphuls Norman Lear Jeremy Isaacs John Mortimer Peter Jay Ted Turner Jonathan Miller Denis Foreman John Schlesinger Troy Kennedy Martin Philip Whitehead Christine Ockrent Rupert Murdoch Verity Lambert David Elstein Michael Grade Dennis Potter Janet Street Porter John Birt Laurence Marks Maurice Gran Peter Bazalgette Richard Eyre David Liddiment and Mark Thompson With a Foreword by John Willis and an introductory essay exploring the history of the MacTaggart lectures and a review of the shifting themes and concerns of the lectures the book provides a forum for the significant debates which have helped to shape both television content and policy across twenty five years of considerable and unprecedented change in broadcasting Topics covered include the future of public service programming the relationship of government to broadcasters the impact of ownership on the freedom of broadcasters and debates about whether and how television should be regulated Television Policy is essential reading for all students of media and communication studies as well as those interested in reading accounts of television programming and policy written by some of the most eloquent eminent but contentious figures in television broadcasting Features The first collection of the prestigious MacTaggart Lectures A unique insight into the development of television programming across 25 years

British Television Policy Bob Franklin, 2001 British Television Policy A Reader provides a forum for the significant policy debates which have informed and shaped television broadcasting since the publication in 1986 of the Peacock Committee Report on the financing of the BBC The Reader presents key documents and critically analyses their impact on the organisation financial resources programme content editorial philosophy and the regulatory environment of television broadcasting Recognising that policy making is not wholly a prerogative of government British Television Policy provides readers with access to a wide range of statutory and non governmental documents which have affected British broadcasting legislation Acts of Parliament Private Members Bills Select Committee Reports Official statements by Ministers Parliamentary inquiries such as the Davies Report Policy documents prepared by interest groups such as the Campaign for Quality Television and the Voice of the Listener and Viewer Strategic announcements from the ITC Statements from the BBC and ITV Public lectures by media owners and executives such as Rupert Murdoch and Richard Eyre Commentaries from media academics and media analysts Beginning with a comprehensive editorial introduction which details television policy since 1945 the Reader is arranged in thematic sections which explore the purpose of television broadcasting the financing of television broadcasting policy and quality regulation and the relationship of broadcasting and politics Each section is accompanied by an editor s introduction and commentary and the Reader is supported by a glossary and a guide to further reading Senate documents ,1884 Public service content Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Culture, Media and Sport Committee, 2007-11-15 Incorporating HCP 314 i viii session 2006 07 Host Bibliographic Record for Boundwith Item Barcode 30112042398930 and Others ,1893 English Mechanic and World of Science ... ,1882
