Global Business, Local Law Amanda Perry-Kessaris, 2016-04-22 This volume establishes a theoretical framework for exploring the role of host state legal systems courts and bureaucracies in mediating relations between foreign investment civil society and government actors It then demonstrates the application of that framework in the context of the south Indian city of Bengaluru formerly Bangalore Drawing on the law and community approach of Roger Cotterrell the volume identifies three mechanisms through which law might in theory ensure that social relations are productive by expressing any mutual trust which may hold actors together by ensuring that actors participate fully in social life and by coordinating the differences that hold actors apart Empirical data reveals that each of these legal mechanisms is at work in Bengaluru However their operation is limited and skewed by the extent to which actors use abuse and or avoid them Furthermore these legal mechanisms are being eroded as a direct result of the World Bank s investment climate discourse which privileges the interests and values of foreign investors over those of other actors
